OBITUARY.

MR. JOHN GALE.

Mr. John Gale, one of our most prominent farmers and stock dealers, died at his home near Hanesville, at seven o'clock on Monday morning as the result of a stroke of apoplexy sustained last Friday morning while on the public road, near Worton Station. The deceased was 55 years old and was the son of the late John Gale, the head of one of Worton's most prominent families. For many years he owned and tilled the fine homestead, Worton Manor, but in late years had resided on the Samuel Beck farm, near Hanesville, where he was engaged extensively in stock dealing. We wish that space would allow us to tell of all the fine traits in the character of this good man. He was in all respects a good citizen, using his influence and his energy for the breaking up of evil, and for the moral uplift of the community in which he lived; he was an honest and fearless business man, giving to his fellowmen a square deal in every transaction, and exacting from every man an honest transaction in return; he was a good man, giving to his church his talents, his means and his service, and giving to the world an influence for good and to the needy substantial evidences of a large and generous heart; and he was a devoted husband and father, giving to his home life that charm and hospitable devotion which made his domicile a delightful place to visit, and a charming abiding place. In all things he was a valuable citizen, and in all walks of life he was a man, one who will be missed for his many good deeds and his loving kindness. The deceased was twice married, leaving two children by his first wife—Prof. Walter R. Gale, of the City College, Baltimore, and Miss Lillian Gale, of Columbia, S. C. His second wife, by whom, with two daughters, Misses Addie and Ethel, he is survived, was before marriage a Miss Gemmill. Funeral services were held from his late residence on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. G. A. Morris, assisted by Rev. Dr. F. T. Little. The pall-bearers were Messrs. R. G. Nicholson, Walter T. Morris, J. E. Morris, Wm. J. Beck, A. Parks Rasin and Wm. B. Willis. Interment was made in Chester Cemetery, Undertaker Chas. L. Dodd in charge. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful. The funeral procession was one of the longest ever seen in the county.

MR. CHARLES H. DAVIS.

Mr. Charles H. Davis, former sheriff of Kent county and a prominent liveryman of Chestertown died at his home on High street on Tuesday morning at seven oclock of Bright's disease, aged 74 years. The deceased had been in failing health for some years, but until a few weeks ago attended to his livery business. For years Mr. Davis had been mail carrier from the postoffice to the train, and had given faithful attention to every duty. During his younger days the deceased was a power in the councils of the Democratic party, and even in his late years his interest in the success of his party did not wane. He was a candidate for sheriff in the late primaries and though defeated made a most excellent campaign for one of his advanced years. He was twice married leaving one daughter, Mrs. Wm. H. Lambert, by his first wife. He is also survived by a widow and two small children. Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. F. T. Little. Interment in Chester Cemetery, undertaker Charles L. Dodd in charge. The pall-bearers were Messrs. John H. Greenwood, Jas. S. Bradley, Edward Parsons, Lewin Parsons, Wm. F. Malin, of Chestertown, and his nephew, Mr. Milbourn F. Davis, of Philadelphia.

T. MARSHALL HAINES.

T. Marshall Haines, Esq., one of the most prominent and widely known lawyers of Elkton, died at his home in that town on Sunday, of heart failure, aged 63 years. The deceased had been in failing health for some months, and had been away for the benefit of his health. He was counsel for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and two years ago appeared in the Kent Circuit Court in the case of several members of an Elkton order against the company for damages for alleged assault at Havre de Grace.

CAPT. EPHRIAM DILL.

Capt. Ephriam Dill, a well-known waterman, of Chestertown, died at his home on Cannon street, Tuesday morning, of consumption, aged 29 years. He leaves a widow and two small children. Funeral services were held Thursday morning at 10.30 o'clock from Sacred Heart Catholic Church, conducted by Rev. Father Heavy. Undertaker W. T. Hicks had charge of arrangements.

Chas. W., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McGuire, of near Lambson Station, died on Wednesday evening, aged 1 year and 8 months. Funeral services Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. C. W. Prettyman. Interment in Galena cemetery. W. H. Krusen in charge.

Mr. Henry Hardesty, a well-known citizen of Rock Hall, died at his home in that town Monday afternoon, of Bright's disease, aged 70 years.
