For Our Patronage

we depend upon what this store IS, for what it HAS and for what it DOES.

It depends for its very existence upon the satisfaction that it gives its customers.

And the fact that the volume of our business is steadily increasing ought to be proof enough that this store manages to keep pretty well up to the front of the procession.

When anything new or novel in Furniture is turned out we very soon hear of it, and if it is really a worth while production we are sure to have it in quick order.

Come expecting big values and, we will see that you are not disappointed.

OBJECTS AND PRINCIPLES OF THE

Jr. O. U. A. M.

FIRST—To maintain and promote the interests of Americans and shield them from the depressing effects of unrestricted immigration; to assist them in obtaining employment and to encourage them in business.

SECOND—To provide for the creation of a fund or funds for the payment of benefits in case of sickness, disability or death of its members, to members, their legal dependents or representatives, and to issue certificates of membership for the same.

THIRD—To uphold the American Public School System, to prevent interference therewith, and to encourage the reading of the Holy Bible in the schools thereof.

FOURTH—To promote and maintain a National Orphans' Home.

We recognize the landing upon our shores of the ignorant, the vicious and the lawless of the Old World as a constant menace to our institutions, and believe that it should be viewed with alarm by the loyal and patriotic citizens of the country.

We would place a flag upon and a Bible within every Public School-house of our land, that all might learn these to be a beacon light in every storm which may threaten our destruction.

Dr. Little, Wilbur W. Hubbard, J Frank Wheatley, Thomas D. Bowers, Misses Mary Knight and Bessie Wheatley.

Rev. J. E. Maloy, a former pastor of Kennedyville M. P. Church, filled the pulpit in that church last Sunday and preached able and forceful sermons. Mr. Maloy is one of the patriarchs of the Maryland Conference and is much loved by the people throughout the conference.

Rev. Dr. Little, the faithful pastor of Christ M. P. Church, suffered from an attack of old fashioned croup last Saturday night. The attack somewhat affected his speech, but detracted in nowise from the forcefulness of his sermons on Sunday. He preached two fine sermons and conducted the exercises in the Sunday School. He is now much improved.

The calendar of the M. E. Church was entertained at the home of Miss Fannie Stuart on Tuesday evening.

Revival services have been in progress in the M. E Church since Jan. 2, with increasing interest.

The annual Christmas treat to the Sunday School of Christ M. P. Church was held without demonstration last Tuesday evening.

The Way They Do it.

A Michigan editor, who grew tired of lying about people in obituary notices, and then have people call him a hypocrite, wrote up one well-known citizen as follows: "Deceased was a mild mannered pirate. He came here at night with another man's wife and joined the church at first chance. You could hear him sing and pray six blocks. He died singing 'Christ Paid It All,' and we think he is right, as he never paid anything himself. He was buried in an asbestos casket and his friends threw palm fans into his grave. His tombstone will be a favorite resting place for hoot owls."—Ex.

Peninsula Horticulturalists.

The annual meeting of the Peninsula Horticultural Society was held in Centreville Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. A large attendance of farmers and those interested in agriculture have been at each meeting and some of the most noted agriculturalists of the country have discussed important farm subjects. The address of welcome was made by Rev. W. B. Stehl, response in behalf of the society was made by Mr. J. W. Kerr, of Denton. The president's address was delivered by W. Irving Walker. There were close to 500 exhibits of choice apples, nearly 300 exhibits of nuts, almost an equal numbers of pears, and the Stewart Fruit Company, of Baltimore, had a large display of cold store fruits. The people of Centreville gave the members and visitors a royal welcome and held a public reception in their honor in the opera house on Tuesday evening. Mr. William McKenney was chairman of the reception.

—Mr. Louis Kromshinski, of South Dakota, has been in Chestertown and the county during the week looking for a 200-acre farm which he desires to purchase for his father, who proposes to move his family to Kent if he can secure a suitable farm. Mr. Kromshinski has been in touch with the real estate agency of J. Waters Russell.
