LOCAL MATTERS.

Buys Residence.—Mr. Harry B. Rote, one of our popular jewelers, has purchased Mr. J. D. Bacchus' residence on High street now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nichols. The price is reported to have been $3,500, and arrangements are being completed whereby possession can be given April 1.

Cecil Farm Sales.—Mr. Alday Clements and wife have sold to Oscar G. Goodhand, of Brooklyn, N. Y., their 452 acre farm in the First District of Cecil county for $29,700. Mr. John D. Gill and others, of Delaware, have sold to Edwin E. Ewell, of Delaware, their 351 acre farm in Sassafras Neck for $12,100.

TOLD IN BRIEF.

—Dist. President Wm. B. Coleman installed the newly elected officers of Camp 34, P. O. S. of A. in Fraternal Hall, Tuesday evening.

—The postoffice at Pomona has been discontinued and all mail for that section of the county will go by rural route hereafter.

—Mr. Samuel Hicks has secured the services of a first-class blacksmith and wheelwright from Wilmington. He is thoroughly prepared to attend to all work brought to the shop.

—Mr. C. C. Brown, Jr., of Philadelphia, has purchased from Judge Joseph A. Wickes for his mother, Mrs. C. C. Brown, of Quaker Neck, the Hiram M. Brown farm located in lower Quaker Neck.

—Mr. Carter, of Annapolis, has assumed charge of the Singer Sewing Machine Company's office here. Mr. J. Hall Denny, the former superintendent, will continue to serve as road agent for the company.

—The members of the coast-survey moved their headquarters from the Pippin Hotel to Crumpton on Wednesday, going up the river on skates and pushing their baggage and instruments on an improvised sled.

—The egg market in Delaware reached the highest mark on Saturday since the Civil War, the dealers paying the farmers 45c per dozen, and they could hardly get eggs at that. They are selling at 37c in the local market; but don't tell the hens.

—Mr. William L. Meredith, who recently removed from near Kennedyville to the Kent House, has rented the property near Hanesville, formerly occupied by the late John Gale. Mr. Meredith, as announced exclusively by the TRANSCRIPT, will engage in the purchase of stock, general farm produce, etc., and will move early in the spring.

—We have recently received beautiful calendars from Hague & Hackett, Still Pond's reliable hardware and implement firm; A. S. Turner, the Worton grain buyer and implement and carriage dispenser; Graham & Clements, Chestertown's new hardware and implement firm, and J. D. Bacchus, the well-known coal and wood man. All are beautiful and attractive.

—The tract of 5 acres of land, situated near Peacock's Corner, in the First District, belonging to Charles H., Arrie M., and Alexander Mann, was sold at sheriff's sale on Tuesday, to Mr. B. W. Duling, of Millington, for $210. The tract of ½ acre, situated near Coleman's belonging to Lena and James L. Wilson was purchased by Mr. Eugene M. Bonwell for $155. Both sales were advertised exclusively in the Transcript.

—Chester river has been frozen from shore to shore during the past week, and navigation has been practically closed. The steamer Gratitude left here Monday morning and battled with the ice all the way to Rock Hall, failing to reach that point until three o'clock in the afternoon. She encountered little difficulty from Rock Hall to Baltimore, arriving in the city about five o'clock. She returned to Chestertown Thursday afternoon and left for Baltimore Friday morning.

—Mr. George V. Hatcherson residing on the Rev. Samuel Thomas farm near Fancy School, was in a runaway accident on Monday morning which caused a badly bruised and lacerated knee. He was returning from school when his horse's bridle bit broke on Mr. J. P. DeCorse's farm, causing him to run. Mr. Hatcherson attempted to get out on the shaft and was thrown to the ground with great force. Dr. Smith has been in attendance and Mr. Hatcherson is improving.

—Capt. John Brice, the faithful agent of the Ericsson Line pier at Betterton, telephoned to us on Tuesday morning to know how the people here are getting to Baltimore. We told him that they are not going only by compulsion. He states that the ice is twelve inches thick in the Sassafras, and that farmers are driving two-horse wagons right out on the ice and loading them. He also says that parties of ladies and gentlemen have skated from Betterton to Georgetown during the week. The Lord Baltimore is making the trip between cities but is not stopping at Betterton. Chester river boats got as far as Rock Hall on Tuesday, bringing a number of passengers. This is real winter like we used to have.

Pomona Grange.

The quarterly meeting of the County Grange was held in Kennedyville Grange Hall on Thursday. Notwithstanding the almost impassable condition of the roads and the inclemency of the weather, all the subordinate granges in the county were represented, and there was a good attendance. A good impromptu programme was rendered:—Messrs. Skipper, Anthony and Smyth, and Mr. Thomas, of Montgomery county, being the speakers. It was the occasion of the annual election of officers, the principal officers elected being as follows: Master, John R. Bennett; overseer, Harry Griffith; lecturer, Wm. G. Smyth; secretary, Samuel J. Comly; steward, T. E. W. Crew. A full account with a full list of the officers will be published next week. The next quarterly meeting will be held in Fairlee the first Thursday in April.

AT HYMEN'S ALTAR.

STRONG—BRICE.

Miss Emma Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Romie Strong, of Baltimore, formerly of this county, was quietly married on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock to Dr. Merritt Brice, a prominent young physician of Baltimore. The wedding was to have taken place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Dr. W. O. Selby, near Edesville, but owing to illness, the bride was unable to come to Kent, and the ceremony was performed very quietly at the rectory of the Church of the Messiah, by Rev. Peregrin Wroth, a cousin of the bride. The bride's costume was blue chiffon broadcloth, with hat and gloves to match. The bride's illness prevented the holding of a reception, and after the ceremony Dr. Brice and his bride were driven to their new home, 653 Columbia avenue, where they are at home to their friends. They were the recipients of many valuable and costly presents.

STEPHENS—JOHNSON.

Dr. M. Bates Stephens, State Superintendent of Public Education for the past 20 years, and a bachelor all these long and trying years, sad to state, was married at 6.30 o'clock on Wednesday morning to Miss Nettie Johnson, daughter of Mr. Purnell Johnson, a prominent resident of Denton, Md. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride, after which Dr. and Mrs. Stephens—that sounds good to us, doctor—left on the train for an extended wedding tour. The TRANSCRIPT extends congratulations and best wishes to the genial and popular superintendent, and wishes him and his good wife many years of usefulness in the spread of knowledge and truth.

ANDERSON—FOWLER.

Miss Katherine Elizabeth Fowler, daughter of Mrs. Emma Fowler, of Flatland, was married on Wednesday evening to Mr. Wm. O. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson, of Worton. The ceremony was performed at St. James M. P. parsonage by Rev. G. A. Morris, pastor of St. James M.P. Church. A quiet reception followed the ceremony, at which a few friends and relatives were present. The bride's wedding gown was blue messaline, while the groom wore the conventional black. They were the recipients of many useful and valuable presents.

WALTERS—FOGWELL.

Mr. Samuel C. Walters and Miss Anna B. Fogwell were married at the Chesterville parsonage, on Wednesday evening, January 5, by the pastor. They were accompanied by Mr. Nicholas Walters, brother of the groom, and Mr. Robert Fogwell, brother of the bride. The bride was prettily gowned in white wool batiste, braided, and with a lace collar. They went immediately to their new home near Galena.

RHODES—McCONNER.

A pretty home wedding took place on Wednesday morning in Queenstown at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. McConnor, when their daughter, Florence E., became the bride of Mr. L. Kennard Rhodes, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Louis Rhodes. Rev. Charles P. McGolderick, of Church Hill, performed the ceremony. After the cremony Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes left for a trip north. They will reside near Queenstown. Both are well-known in Chestertown, being graduates of Washington College.

The Court of Appeals Decides Capt. Jesse Middleton's Case.

The Court of Appeals on Tuesday last affirmed the judgment of the Circuit Court in the case of Capt. Jesse E. Middleton and the Kent Loan Association against C. B. Watkins, a son in-law of Mr. James Brice, of this town. It will be remembered that the property of Capt. Middleton was sold at sheriff's sale and bought in by Mr. Watkins. At the time of the sale the Kent Loan Association held a mortgage on Middleton's property. The amount due on this mortgage including all interest was tendered to the Kent Loan Association, but acting under the advice of its counsel, the association refused to accept the tender. Thereupon the property was sold by Mr. Urie, the attorney of the Loan Company, under the mortgage. Exceptions were filed by Mr. Watkins, the purchaser to the ratification of the mortgage sale. The Circuit Court set the mortgage sale aside upon the ground that the tender made the Loan Association should have been accepted. The decision of the Court of Appeals terminates the litigation. The costs of the suit below and above are ordered to be paid by the Loan Association. Hope H. Barroll, Esq., represented Mr. Watkins, and John D. Urie, Esq., was attorney for the Loan Association.

Our Advertisers' Interests.

The presentation of "Lena Rivers" which is to be made in Stam's Hall, on next Friday evening should prove highly diverting. It would seem as if every one had read Mrs. Mary J. Holmes' book, and it would also seem as if every one who has done so, wants to see the play dramatized from it. The success of the play has reached an extraordinary pitch, and, judging from the things said of the work, there is no reason why results should be otherwise. The play is clean, it is wholesome, its atmosphere is redolent of the South and its humor is of the healthy kind. "Lena Rivers" proves to be an entertainment that everybody with any sense of humor and kindness ought to see, for he will laugh and he will cry just a bit, not because of any sorrow, but because the touch of human nature in it is so potent and sympathetic that it is irresistable. It is one of those oddly sympathetic contributions of human tenderness and stage art that make one forget the unreality of the surroundings and cause one to bestow the tribute of unexpected, but unhindered tear. We go from here to Wilmington, Del. for performances.
