OBITUARY.

MRS. FANNIE M. NORFOLK.

Mrs. Fannie M. Norfolk, aged 73 years, widow of Dr. William H. Norfolk, formerly of Calvert county, Md., died early Monday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Albert Arnold, at Forest Park, Baltimore, after an illness of over three months. Mrs. Norfolk was a daughter of the late Thomas and Mary Hamilton Tucker, and was a granddaughter of James Hamilton, prominent in the Revolutionary period. At the time of her death she was an officer of Mordecai Gist Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution.

She is survived by two daughters, (Mrs. Arnold and Mrs. William Gilmore Booth, of Seattle, Wash.,) one brother (Mr. John W. Tucker, of Baltimore,) and two sisters (Mrs. Wm. Richards, of Franklin, Pa., and Mrs. Rachel Mathiot, of New York) and eight grandchildren. The funeral took place at 10.30 o'clock on Wednesday morning. Services were conducted by Rev. Henry T. Sharp, rector of the Prince of Peace Protestant Episcopal Church, Walbrook. Interment was made in Loudon Park Cemetery. The deceased was a cousin of Mrs. Edgar P. Beck, of Chestertown, and she and her daughters had been frequent visitors to our town and county, where she was held in the highest esteem.

The funeral services of the late Wm. B. Usilton were held in Christ M P. Church on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev Dr. F. T. Little, who delivered a splendid eulogy upon the life and character of the deceased. Miss Ida Smith sang the impressive solo, "Light From the Tomb," which the deceased requested sung at his funeral, and the choir sang one of his favorite Sunday school hymns. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Marion deK. Smith, Jas. W. Lambert, Samuel Vannort, John F. Howard, J. L. Smyth and J. D. Bacchus. Interment was made in the family lot in Chester cemetery. The floral tributes were beautiful, among them being a beautiful wreath from Christ M. P. Sunday school, of which the deceased was superintendent for forty years, and a beautiful design from the board of stewards of the church of which the deceased was a member for many years. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of the fundral arrangements.

Maryland Legislature.

Among the petitions introduced in the Senate on Monday night was one by Senator Goslin, of Caroline, which requests the Legislature to extend the term of Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce, of the Second Judicial Circuit. It was signed by the members of the Caroline county bar.

Why was not this petition filed by some member of the Kent county delegation? Kent county is the home of Judge Pearce, and it would have been the proper thing for this petition to have been presented by the Kent delegates, it seems to us. Is not the Kent county delegation favorable to the extension of Judge Pearce's term?

Mr. Wm. H. Cooper, whom Delegate Harry C. Willis took to Annapolis with him, has been appointed one of the door-keepers of the House.

Senator Slay, besides taking Mr. Charles O. Cacy, of Millington, is allowed another employe, and has taken Mr. Charles L. Gill with him.

Little business of any moment has been transacted by the Legislature yet, owing to the failure of the presiding officers to announce their committees. The legislature is consequence adjourned on Wednesday until Monday.

Still Pond Notes.

Mr. Albert Jarvis has returned from his brother's in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Lester Coleman, of Baltimore, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hackett.

Mr. and Mrs. John Atwell, of near Chestertown, spent Wednesday with her sister, Mrs. John Boulden.

Little Miss Mary Schofield has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Rebecca Boulden.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robinson celebrated their second anniversary Sunday with a four o'clock dinner. Many of their friends were present.

Mr. Chas. Hague and daughter, Elizabeth, and Miss Lydie Hague spent Sunday with his brother, Mr. Wm. Hague, Kennedyville.

Mrs. Nettie Hyland, of New York, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Jane Howard.

Skating has been fine the past week.

Mrs. J. H. Beauchamp and daughter, Merrell, spent part of last week with her daughter, Mrs. Reynolds, Townsend, Del.

Mrs. Horton Kelley returned from a visit to Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Atwood Ricards entertained a small crowd Monday evening, about a dozen being present. Refreshments were served consisting of pineapple and cake. A jolly evening was spent by all.

—Skating has been fine on Chester river during the week, and the usual big crowds have enjoyed the sport. Quite a number of young men skated to Crumpton and back one day this week.

Kennedyville Items.

With plenty of snow and ice yet no ice houses can be filled in our community on account of the bad travel. Those who had to move, did so, but did it with many difficulties.

Mr. George Lane moved to Still Pond, Mr. Joseph Trew moved on his farm vacated by Mr. Lane. Jim and Gus Nickerson moved on the Wilmer farm vacated by Mr. William Lee. Charles Smith moved in the Jim Robinson house, Jim Robinson moved to the tenant house on the John R. Bennett farm while John and Harry Faulkner moved in the Robert Comly house vacated by Edward Faulkner. Mr. Cornelius moved on the John R. Bennett farm vacated by Jim Bennett who moved to his farm in Queen Annes county.

The serenaders have been busy the past week, as four of our gallant young men have entered the matrimonial class. Mr. Earl Nickerson, Mr. Lloyd Dill, Mr. James Weer and Mr. Sam Newcomb are the graduates from bachelorism. We wish them many happy years of success; and while this is quite a heavy blow to our young men's ranks, yet we have some very fine ones that are of marriage age yet left among us. Young ladies, please take notice.

HANDICAPPED

This is the Case With Many Chestertown People.

Too many Chestertown citizens are handicapped with a bad back. The unceasing pain causes constant misery, making work a burden and stooping or lifting an impossibility. The back aches at night, preventing refreshing rest and in the morning is stiff and lame. Plasters and liniments may give relief but cannot reach the cause. To eliminate the pains and aches you must cure the kidneys.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently.

The following statement should convince every Chestertown reader of their efficiency.

Geooge T Newsome, of Spruence city, Smyra, Del., says: "I suffered from backache for several years, at times quite severely. I was often so lame and weak that I could hardly walk and there was a constant, dull pain over my kidneys. A few months ago Doan's Kidney Pills were highly recommended to me and I procured a box. Before I had finished the contents, I was free from every Symptom of kidney trouble. I have not had the slightest backache since then and I therefore highly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 Cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
