HARRY F. JEFFERSON,

THE LADIES' STORE,

Opposite Stam's Hall Chestertown Md.

Galena Ripples.

Mr. Louis C. Hayes, one of our oldest and most highly respected residents died at his home Friday, after a long illness, in his 70th year. He leaves a widow, four married daughters, one single daughter and a son Mr. L. J. Hayes in the insurance business at Salisbury. He was a mem- of Kent Lodge, No. 74, I. O. O. F. in which he held several offices and was a valuable member. The community has lost a good citizen, and the family a good husband and father. He was always ready to assist those in distress. He was also a member of the Heptasophs. Both orders attended the funeral which was held on Monday, in a body. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Mitchell. Interment in Galena cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. S. Harry Todd, J. F. M. Woodall, Harry Redding. B. J. McCauley, Victor Stradley and Joseph H. Woodall.

The funeral was very largely attended considering the cold weather. Undertaker Wm. Wilson had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Four couples were united in marriage on Wednesday evening. What little town can beat that?

The roads leading to Galena are impassable in most places.

There is some complaint among our town tax-payers because they feel that they are not getting the conveniences they should have in proportion to the taxes they pay. The street lights have not been lighted for several nights. Is it because the money has run out?

Christmas and New Year's holidays being over our people have settled down for another year's work. W.

Betterton Briefs.

Persons owning ice houses are filling them with ice from the bay. The ice is very good and is seven or eight inches thick.

Owing to the heavy ice around the wharves and at the head of the bay, no boats have landed here for nearly two weeks.

There has been a great deal of sickness around town for the past month, but it is much improved now.

Mr. Lemuel Hickman and family have moved from Baltimore to their home, New B lmont, on Ericsson avenue.

The fishermen are busy gearing in and mending their nets preparing for the coming season.

The c is and walks around town are in very good condition for this time of the ye r.

As the result of the cold weather a fine crop of ice has been harvested.

The young people are enjoying excellent skating on the bay.

Mrs. Mattie Tull has moved into her new home on bayside.

Mr. Frank Anderson has moved into the house which was formerly occupied by Mrs. Tull.

Our sick list has been unusually large this winter. Those on it at present are reported to be improving.

Mrs. Violet Crew has been quite sick during the past week.

Mrs. James M. Sutton spent last week in Chestertown as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Alexander Wheeler.

Kennedyville Items.

Those having ice houses are filling them with about 8-inch ice and snow combined.

Mr. James Weer and Miss Louise Johnson, two of our popular young people, were quietly married January 3d, 1910, by Rev. C. W. Moore, at the M. E. parsonage in Millington. They will reside in Miss Johnson's house in our town.

On Sunday last our pastor was away filling an appointment to help a sick pastor, and he got Rev. J. E. Maloy to fill his pulpit, which he did to the satisfaction of all who heard him. Revival services on Sunday night.

The election of Sunday school officers will be held, immediately after the morning sermon.

A gentleman from New York State has purchased a carload of horses in our community the past week and they were shipped on Wednesday.

One evening last week Dr. Urie with a coal bucket in his hand and a plenty of ice under his feet, just let his feet slip on that ice fare enough and quick enough to throw him until his head struck something harder, and the result was a cut head, but we are glad that nothing serious has resulted from the cut. We understand that our untrained nurse, Mr. W. M. Hurlock, was near by and came to his assistance, and the doctor is getting along nicely. He never lost a meal. So much for being a good nurse.

Messrs. Thomas Quigley, F. C. Miller, Raymond Bonwill and others have been measuring the speed of their fine drivers at Locust Grove the past week, where the farmers had made a good sleighing track by harrowing and rolling the snow. CITIZEN.

Emmanuel—Sunday School at 7 P. M. preaching at 11 A. M., league at 7 P. M. Woman's Home Missionary Society, Thursday, January 20th.

Trinity—Sunday School at 2 P. M., preaching at 3 P. M., Epworth League at 7 P. M. The Woman's Home Missionary Society met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. F. Crouch, but owing to the icy roads few were present.

The pastor will deliver a lecture on "The Brownies of Dia Nippon," or "The Sunrise Kingdom" in the interest of missions, January 27th (Trinit) and 28th (Emmanuel) at 7.30 P. M. No admission.

Owing to the storm the Christmas entertainment at Emmanuel was postponed until January 8 h. All church work in the country has been very much impeded, but it is hoped the regular work will not now be interrupted.

At the home of Mrs. E. A. Crittenden, her mother, Mrs. Burris, had a fall which resulted in her arm and side being badly bruised. This with the storm caused them to postpone their visit to Newark, Del., for several weeks.

Mr. Lloyd Dill and his bride have moved on the farm vacated by Mr. Christopher Conner.
