No. 127.

An ordinance appropriating the sum of seven thousand and one hundred dollars ($7,100) for the use of certain free dispensaries in the City of Baltimore.

$7,100 appropriated for the use of certain free dispensaries.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the sum of seven thousand and one hundred dollars ($7,100) be and the same is hereby appropriated for the use of the following free dispensaries of the City of Baltimore in the amounts named; said sum to be taken from any money in the city treasury not otherwise appropriated: To the Baltimore Medical College Free Dispensary the sum of twelve hundred dollars ($1,200), to the Maryland Homeopathic Free Dispensary the sum of eight hundred dollars ($800), to the Baltimore General Dispensary the sum of eight hundred dollars ($800), to the Woman's and Child's Hospital Free Dispensary the sum of five hundred dollars ($500), to the Baltimore University Free Dispensary the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000), to the University of Maryland Free Dispensary the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000), to the Provident Hospital Free Dispensary the sum of eight hundred dollars ($800), and to the Baltimore Homeopathic Free Dispensary the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000).

SEC. 2. And be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved November 26, 1898.

S. ECCLES, JR., Mayor ex-officio.

No. 128.

An ordinance to repeal and reordain as amended Section 147, Article 35, Baltimore City Code, 1893.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That Section 147, Article 35, Baltimore City Code, 1893, be and the same is hereby repealed and reordained to read as follows:

Stalls for cheese or dried fish dealers designated by clerks.

"SECTION 147. No dealer in cheese, or in salted, cured or dried fish, shall occupy any stand or stands in the Lexington, Hanover or Fells' Point Markets other than such as shall be designated for such use by the clerks of said several markets, with the approbation of the Mayor, which stand or stands so designated by the said clerks shall be confined to the following limits, that is to say: In the Lexington Market, to the entire north and south side of the market-house west of Eutaw street to the east side of Pearl street; in the Hanover Market, within the interior space on either side of the fish market, and in the Fells' Point Market, to the eave stalls or permanent benches in the lower part of the southern market-house.

Became a law by limitation.

No. 129.

An ordinance adopting a plan for streets, etc., in the Annex, and providing for a map of the same

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the plan or scheme of streets, avenues, lanes,