LOCAL MATTERS.

Postmaster at Still Pond.—Mr. Geo. W. Atwell has been appointed postmaster at Still Pond to succeed the late Postmaster Norris.

Ladies' Improvement Entertainment.—The Ladies' Improvement Association is preparing to give an elaborate entertainment in the nature of a Society Vaudeville the first week after Easter. The entertainment will be given three evenings, and will be the most elaborate even seen in the town. Don't run anything in ahead of it. This is for the town's own good.

Mrs. Pennell's Will.—The will of Mrs. Penelope Pennell, formerly of this county, has been filed for probate in the Orphans' Court. The entire estate, estimated at over $400,000, is left in trust to her children, who will enjoy the income from the net proceeds. Mr. Wm. P. Dunn, her son-in-law, is named as administrator. The deceased owned a number of valuable farms in this and Queen Annes counties, and Mr. Walter T. Morris, who has managed them for some time, will continue to act in that capacity.

TOLD IN BRIEF.

—Mr. Bedford Titter has taken charge of the restaurant formerly conducted by Mr. John Roland.

—Millington has had a mad dog scare, and all dogs are required to be kept muzzled for a period of forty days.

—There's trouble at the High School and at Washington College among the students—Examinations are on.

—Hetty Green, the richest woman in the world, worth $100,000,000, says she is not able to eat meat at the present prices.

—Mr. John C. Wood, of the Fifth District, has purchased for $550 the house and lot in Rock Hall now occupied by Mr. Chas. Kendall.

—Swan Point has been choked up with piles of Susquehana ice during the week, and the oystermen have been somewhat handicapped in their work.

Seine haulers made a great catch of perch, pike and yellow perch up the river last Monday. They were of all sizes, little and big, and were shipped to city markets and retailed on the streets here.

—Mr. Jas. E. Woodall, Jr., of Georgetown, has been appointed keeper of the Sassafras River bridge, to succeed Mr. P. M. Pennington, who held the position under the Cecil County Commissioners.

—Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard has been transplanting some of his large shade trees from his Washington avenue home to his new property on Front street. Mr. Hubbard proposes to transplant every other big tree from his Washington avenue yard.

—The advertisement of the Reo Automobile will appear in our issue next week. The Reo has added many improvements since last season. Notably among them is the four-cylinder, shaft drive with magnets and lighter. Look for the advertisement next week.

—The arbiters in the Hynson-Cooper case have asked for an extension of three weeks in rendering a decisson. The mass of testimony is such that it will require considerable time to go over it perfectly. They may be able to give a decision next week, however.

—Mr. Wm. A. Hyland, Sr., who has been in the hardware and implement business for 50 years in Galena, has sold his stock and fixtures to his son, Wm. A. Hyland, Jr., who took charge Jan. 1. Mr. Hyland will now enjoy the reward of a long and successful business career, and leaves to his son the rich legacy of square dealing and prompt service which he will no doubt use to great advantage.

—One our of esteemed friends who has recently changed his postoffice address came into our office on Wednesday and said, "Please change the address of my paper. I can't do without the TRANSCRIPT. I want to have the pleasure of reading it every week. I have been away up in Pennsylvania and when I got home and found my TRANSCRIPT, it was like welcoming an old friend. The paper is always full of news, and of matters which appeal to the interests of the tax-payers. Don't let it miss a week."

—Mr. and Mrs. Gladhill closed their home across the river last week and moved to Baltimore county, where they will make their future home. They took away with them their beautiful chickens which have furnished so many eggs and spring chickens for Chestertown folks. Mr. Gladhill and his family have been good citizens. They have been industrious, and have furnished local markets with much produce which has found ready sale. They will be missed, and we wish them success in their new home.

IN CHURCH CIRCLES.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., Paster—Services next Sunday, Jan. 30th as follows: 10.30 A. M., preaching by the pastor; subject "Take Hold, Hold On;" 2 15 P. M. Sabbath School and pastor's Bible class; 7 P.M., Union Meeting of Epworth Lesgue and Congregation, song service and short sermon by the pastor, Junior, League Friday Evening 6.30. All invited to attend these services.

State Secretary of the Maryland Sunday School Association, Rev. B. W. Kindley, held an interesting conference in the TRANSCRIPT office yesterday morning with the members of the Kent County Association. Business of importance to the Association was discussed.

Mr. Griffith Clift led the Christian Workers service in Christ M. P. Church last Sunday evening. A feature of the meeting was an appropriate solo with chorus by Miss Hope Sappington.

Rev. Dr. F. Little, pastor of Christ M. P. Church, preached two very able sermons last Sunday from the story of Daniel in the Lions' Den. His morning theme was "The courage of one's convictions, or Dare to do right regardless of the envy and criticism of enemies. He made a strong plea for purity of politics, social and business life, and prayed that our Legislaturemen and authorities of government may be actuated by clean conscience and pure motives in their conduct in the Legislature and in State and county affairs. His night theme was "True Manliness," which he said consisted in doing right in all our relations. His most significant point was that it is a difficult matter in this age to do right and be popular, but, said he, it is far more manly to be right than to strive for popularity. He made a strong plea for christian voters to use their ballot for the abolition of the liquor traffic. He said very pointedly that the sentiment of the intelligent white vote of the State of Maryland is in favor of the abolition of the liquor traffic, and yet for the sake of party prestige these same men will go to the polls and vote for a man who pledges himself to use his influence and vote for the cause of temperance and when elected does just the reverse. The sermons were extremely timely and forceful, and it would have been well had every voter in Kent county heard them.

Owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. Leonard White, there will be no preaching at Fairlee and Worton next Sunday, 31st. Sunday School services will be held in both churches.

A memorial service to the memory of the late Wm. B. Usilton, for nearly 40 years superintendent of Christ M. P. Sunday School, will be held in the lecture room of the Church tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. The members and friends of the Church are invited to attend.

Master Walmsley Davis, Harry Rouse and Miss Rebecca Davis were admitted to probationary membership in the M. E. Church last Sunday evening.

Christ M. P. Church Rev. Dr. F. T. Little pastor. Testimony meeting at 9.30 A. M. Preaching at 10 30 A. M. and 7. 30 P. M. Memorial service to the late superintendent of the Sunday School at 2.30 P M. Juniors at six o'clock and Christian Workers service at 6.45 P. M. To all their services you are cordially invited.

Rev. C. P. Way will preach at Grace Presbyterian Church, Kennedyville, Sunday Jan. 30th, at 2.30 P. M.

There will be Mass at Sacred Heart Church on Sunday at the usual hour. The Holy Communion service will begin at 9.30 o'clock. All Catholics should attend.

SCENES THAT INSPIRE PATRIOTISM.

Admiral Dewey, hero of Manila, is an important figure in "The U. S. War Game"—the moving picture spectacl Lyman H. Howe has made with the assistance of 10,000 U. S soldiers, sailors, Annapolis midshipmen and West Point cadets. The head of the U. S. navy posed for the series because he is satisfied that Mr. Howe's entertainment is a force for the good of the service, and this recognition of the remarkable character of the reproduction of army and navy life is shared by Secretary of the Navy, Meyer; Admiral Schley, and other important officers who are all included in the animated scenes. Never before in the history of nations have government and exhibitor so joined in presenting the fighting forces of a country to its citizens in an exhibition. The fact that more than a million people annually see the Howe pictures gives Uncle Sam an opportuning to present his bid for enlistments and encouragement of the service. It gives Mr. Howe unquestionably the biggest ammusement featuae of the year. It will be at Stam's Hall on Wednesday, February 2nd.

In addition to it Mr. Howe presents a host of other features that rival it in interest. Fashionable St. Moritz, Switzerland, during the heighth of the exhilarating winter season; quaint wild birds of the Hebrides and Northern Scotland in beautiful colors, the effect of music on wild animals, a gale at sea, a volcanic eruption in Java, logging in Italy, and a Mohammedan religious festival in Delhi, India, are only a few worthy of especial praise among many others.

Walter W. Needles, the paint and wall paper man, is making an attractive offer for the next sixty days. Read his advertisement and see what it is.
