SOCIETY'S REALMS.

Mrs. G. William Peacock and duaughter, Hannah, of Cecilton, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Duyer on Queen street.

Miss Sallie Sheridan, of Baltimore, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Walter T. Morris, near town.

Mrs. Ernest Waddington, of Baltimore, is visiting Misses Julia and Daisy Nicholson on Fancy farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Duyer, two of our most estimable residents, quietly celebrated the 30th anniversay of their wedding on Saturday evening at their home on Queen street.

Mrs. Joseph Guest has been housed for several days on account of a slight operation performed on her foot recently. She is improving, we are glad to state.

Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard entertained a few friends at a sumptuous course dinner on Monday evening at his home on Washington avenue, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Usilton.

Miss Minnie Rasin, who was operated upon sometime ago at a Philadelphia Hospital for appendicitis is improving, we are glad to state, and it was thought that she will be able to return to her brother's, Mr. A. Parks Rasin's home this week.

Mrs. Harry B. Rote visited her brother, Mr. Robert Copper, in Pocomoke City last week.

Miss Alice LeCompt has accepted a position in Dover as telephone operator.

Miss Elizabeth Brown, of New York, has been visiting Miss Emma France during the week.

Miss Mabel Toulson spent a part of last week with frieds in Philadelphia.

Miss Ruth Lambert, who has been quite sick for sometime with rheumatism is improving, we are glad to state.

Mrs. Agnes Jarman, of Millington, has been visiting her son, Dr. G. Allen Jarman, on High street this week.

Mr. Gilbert Jarman, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Allen Jarman, making the first trip on the boat to Tolchester, since the ice blockade has lifted.

Mr. and Mrs. Washington Skirven entertained a number of friends at a sumptuous supper at their hospitable home near Fairlee, on Thursday evening.

Miss Price, of Stoneton Manor, near Betterton, is the guest of Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., on Front street.

We are glad to state that Mr. J. D. Bacchus, who has been quite sick, is able to be out.

Mrs. Brickman, of Baltimore, is visiting Mrs. George B. McWhorter, on Washington avenue.

We regret to state that the condition of Mr. J. D. Lucas is such, that it was necessary to take him to the hospital this week for special treatment.

Little Miss Ellen Beck, daughter of State's Attorney and Mrs. William W. Beck, has been quite sick during the week.

Dr. M. Earle Usilton, of Philadelphia, spent Sunday with his mother and sister, on High street.

Messrs. Irving and Dwight Long, sons of Mr. Jacob S. Long, left last week for Southern California, where they will probably locate.

Mr. and Mrs. Gove Everett, of near Galena, will celebrate the 25th anniversary of their happy wedded life on Feb. 10th, 1910. Mr. and Mrs. Everett have a host of friends in the upper part of the county who join us in wishing them many happy returns of the delightful occasion.

Miss Lucy Murray, daughter of Rev. S. Reese Murray, formerly pastor of Christ M. P. Church, this town, and a teacher in the Western High School in Baltimore, has been adjudged "good" by the school authorities, and will be granted an increase in salary.

Mr. Thomas B. Elliott was taken very ill on Sunday morning with acute indigestion, and at this writing is very little better.

Mr. Frederick H. Russell has been confined to ths house for several days with a severe cold. He is able to be out, we are glad to state.

Miss Marghuerite Skipper underwent a successful surgical operation in a Baltimore hospital on Monday. Her father, Mr. H. P. Skipper, was with her. He returned on Wednesday and reports her condition very favorable.

Fears have been expressed during the week by the friends of the family of Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard, who are in Paris and Italy, for their safety on account of the raging flood and terrible storm off the coast of Italy. Mr. Hubbard has had no discouraging news and feels confident of the safety of his family.

Mrs. J. P. Ahern and daughrer, Miss Mary, of Millirgton, have been visiting Mrs. David B. Ford.

We regret to state that Rev. S. S. Hepburn is quite ill at his farm near Still Pond. Dr. W. S. Maxwell is the attending physician, and reports Mr. Hepburn a very ill man. His many friends hope for his speedy recovery.

Miss Julia Anthony, of near Pomona, visited Mrs. Harry Anthony, on Queen street, this week.

Miss Townsend, of Sudlersville, is visiting Miss Marguerite Howard.

Fair Dates.

The following dates have been selected for holding fairs in the Maryland and Virginia circuit:

Tasley, Va.—August 2 to 5.
Pocomoke City, Md.—August 9 to 12.
Salisbury, Md.—August 16 to 19.
Easton, Md.—August 23 to 26.
Rockville, Md.—August 30 to September 2.
Timonium, Md—September 6 to 10.
Prospect Park, Md.—September 12 to 17.

Tolchester was not represented at the meeting which was held in Baltimore, perfering to act independent of the circuit. This fair will be held as usual the last week in August, and though its dates conflict with Rockville, Tolchester will have a fine meet Augest 30 to Sept. 2.

—Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Davis were initiated into the mysteries of the Fairlee Grange on Wednesday evening.
