How persons are to be sent to hospitals.

"SEC. 11. The President of the Board of Trustees of the Poor, or any member of said Board, may, by order in writing, direct any indigent sick or disabled persons in the City of Baltimore who are entitled to relief under this ordinance to be sent or taken, with their consent, to the hospitals of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, the University of Maryland, the Baltimore University, the Good Samaritan, and to the Maryland General, the Maryland Homeopathic, the St. Agnes', the St. Joseph's, the Provident and the National Temperance Hospitals, for medical and surgical treatment by the said professors of said institutions at any time during each year; provided, that not more than one hundred (100) persons shall be at any one time in the Hospital of College of Physicians and Surgeons; not more than sixty (60) persons at any one time in the Hospital of the University of Maryland; not more than forty (40) persons at any one time in the Baltimore University Hospital; not more than twenty (20) persons at any one time in the Hospital of the Good Samaritan; not more than fifty-five (55) persons at any one time in the Maryland General Hospital; not more than twenty (20) persons at any one time in the Maryland Homeopathic Hospital; not more than thirty (30) persons at any one time in the St. Agnes' Hospital; not more than thirty (30) persons at any one time in the St. Joseph's Hospital, not more than twenty (20) persons at any one time in the Provident Hospital, and not more than fifteen (15) persons at any one time in the National Temperance Hospital, for treatment as contemplated by this ordinance."

Names of hospitals and limit as to number of persons in each.

SEC. 2. And be it further ordained, That all ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this ordinance be and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 3. And be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved February 23, 1899.

WM. T. MALSTER, Mayor.

No. 165.

An ordinance to regulate the character of street pavements to be laid hereafter in the City of Baltimore.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That from and after the date of the passage of this ordinance no contract shall be made by the city for paving or repaving any street, avenue, lane or alley within the limits of said city with what is known as a cobblestone pavement, nor shall any such pavement be permitted to be laid on any street, avenue, lane or alley within the said city by any individual or corporation.

Newly-opened streets to be paved with improved pavements.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That when any newly-opened street, avenue, lane or alley within the city limits is to be paved it shall be the duty of the City