Kennedyville Items.

Travel improving, more people on the go and spring moving our way, and it will not come too soon, as the farmers are consuming their feed very fast during the cold stormy weather,

Sheriff Medders and deputies made a trip to our community on last Saturday night and also on Monday. In the two trips they gathered in six of our colored population. In the hearing before Squire Nickerson it was brought out very plainly where several of our farmers had lost poultry, hams, side meat and even hogs had been killed and carried away, and all six of these people lived in one house, and this is only half of the residents in the house which is a tenant house on the J. H. Clendaniel farm. Well, the community's loss is Sheriff Medders' gain.

While last Sunday was very cold, our pastor had a good congregation, and as usual he preached two fine sermons, but he still has some left for the future. Regular services on Sunday.

Miss Flora Johnson spent part of the week with her sister, Mrs. Jas. Weer.

Miss Emma Hessner and Mrs. Bessie Robinson are spending some time in Philadelphia.

Mr. Del Fox and wife spent Thursday with Mr. Charles Smith.

Other principal speakers will be Judge George Gray, of Delaware, a classmate and lifelong friend of Dr. Reese, Ex-Judge James A. C. Bond, Comptroller Hering, and a representative from Princeton College, of which the doctor is a graduate. Dr. Reese is in his seventy-second year, and yet his activity is marked, and there is no diminishing of his vitality or his work as a teacher.
