ORDINANCES

Passed at the Annual Session,

1899—1900.

No. 1.

An ordinance granting authority to Jacob Epstein to connect the rear of premises occupied by him, on the north side of West Baltimore street, between Liberty and Howard streets, with the rear of the proposed building or improvements to be erected by him on the south side of West Fayette street and the north side of Garrett street, commonly known as Garrett alley, between Liberty and Howard streets, by a tunnel beneath and an enclosed superstructure or superstructures above the surface of said Garrett street, commonly known as Garrett alley.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That for the convenience of the public having business with Jacob Epstein, trading under the name of The Baltimore Bargain House, authority be and the same is hereby granted to the said Jacob Epstein to construct, erect and maintain, at his own cost, for a period not exceeding twenty-five years, a tunnel or passageway beneath the surface of Garrett street, commonly known as Garrett alley, and an enclosed superstructure or superstructures across and above the surface of said Garrett street, commonly known as Garrett alley, which shall connect the rear of premises occupied by the said Jacob Epstein, on the north side of West Baltimore street,

Permission to construct a tunnel or passageway.