OBITUARY.

DR. JOSHUA THOMAS TWILLEY.

Dr. Joshua Thomas Twilley, one of our oldest and most highly esteemed residents, passed to his reward at his home on High street Monday night at ten o'clock of the infirmities of age, having passed the 83rd anniversay of his birth last October. The deceased removed to Chestertown from Centreville 45 years ago and began the practice of dentistry, becoming one of the most skillful dental surgeons in the county. He was also engaged extensively in the coal and wood business, and was noted for his honesty and business integrity. He retired from business about four years ago.

Dr. Twilley was one of the most devout men in this community. The religion of Christ was to him the greatest treasure in this world, and in his home life, in business and in the church, he exemplified the principles and teachings of his religion, and exerted his influence among men for the upbuilding of Christ's Kingdom for upwards of 73 years. During all this time he was a communicant in the M. E. Church, and during a long and active career in this community he was most active in the church of his choice, and for years exercised the authority of exhorter and local preacher. The quality of goodness and piety in men seems to be so rare in this day and generation, that Dr. Twilley will be sadly missed in the community because of the exemplification of those qualities of character in his association with his fellow-men, and because of the influence which Dr. Twilley exerted for the spread of piety, he will be a dintinct loss to our town and community. His home life was beautiful in its simplicity and grace, and he has left to his widow and children a legacy which no man can take away—a good name and a strong christian character.

The deceased was twice married, his first wife being a Miss Sallie Disharoon, native of Wicomico county. From this union two children survive namely: Mrs. C. C. Ball, of Princess Anne, Md., and Dr. J. Marion Twilley, of Dover, Del. His second marriage was with Miss Anna M. Shaw, of this county, who survives him together with three children, viz: Dr. Wm. S., now traveling in Spain; Mr. George B., and Dr. Chas. Richard, of Chestertown. The second marriage had continued for nearly fifty years, and preparations were being made for the celebration of the golden wedding anniversary on March 7th, an event which the deceased had anticipated with confidence and pleasure.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late residence of the deceased, conducted by Rev. L. E Barrett, D. D.; interment in Chester cemetery. The pall-bearers were : Dr. J. W. Lowe, of Baltimore; Thomas W. Eliason, Joel R. Clements, M. A. Toulson, Dr. C. W. Whaland and M. Wilbur Thomas. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of funeral.

MR. CHARLES W. CROW.

Mr. Charles W. Crow, a well-known and highly respected resident of this county died at the home of his son, Mr. Frank Crow, near Fairlee, on Wednesday, of Bright's disease, aged 67 years. The deceased was born in Cecil county on the Manor, and removed to Kent about 45 years ago. For many years he was engaged in the machinery business as an agent for large manufacturers. He was well-known throughout the county, and enjoyed the respect of a wide circle of friends. He is survived by three children—Mrs. Charles Landen, of New York; Miss Mary Crow, of Virginia, and Mr. Frank Crow, of this county. He also leaves two brothers, Messrs. Wm. T. Crow, of Chestertown, and Mr. Edwin C. Crow, of New York, besides a number of nieces and nephews. Funeral services were held from his son's residence yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. G.A. Morris of St. James M. P. Church. Interment in St. Paul's cemetery. The pall-bearers were his brothers, Messrs. Wm. T. and Edwin C. Crow, his nephews, Owen B., Walter T. and Wm. R. Crow, and Mr. John Bell. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of funeral arrangements.

MR. EDWARD THOMAS COMEGYS.

Mr. Edward Thomas Comegys, a former well-known grain buyer in this county, died on Sunday morning at his home in the Wentworth Apartments, Baltimore, from apoplexy, with which he was stricken on Tuesday of last week, as reported by the TRANSCRIPT. Besides, a widow, who was before marriage, a Miss Elizabeth Hurtt, of this county, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Morton McIlvain Dukehart; five brothers, Messrs. Alexander Comegys, of Middletown, Del.; Samuel Comegys, of Queen Annes; John, William and Dr. Nathaniel Comegys, of Millington, and two sisters, Mrs. Ireland, of Chestertown, and Miss Millie Comegys, of Millington. The deceased was a prominent member of and worker in the Methodist Episcopal Church, of Millington, and was active in all social work. A strange occurrence in regard to Mrs. Comegys' death is that it occurred on the same day as that of her brother-in-law, Mr. Edward Comegys, of Baltimore, and that her age was the same. She is survived by a husband and four children, two daughters, Mrs. Bradford C. Dudley, wife of County Commissioner B. C. Dudley, and Miss Rose Comegys, and two sons, Clarence and Charles Comegys.

MISS LEILA HOFFMAN.

Simpers of this town, whom she had frequently visited. She was here last summer for six weeks, and by her sweet disposition and pleasing manner won a host of friends who sympathize with her mother in her great bereavement. Mrs. H. G. Simpers and Mr. J. Raymond Simpers attended the funeral which was held in Washington on Thursday.

In rememberance of J. J. Warner, who died January 29th, 1910.

Friends may think I'll soon forget you,
And my wounded heart be healed,
But they little know the sorrow
That within my heart's concealed.
By his loving wife.

Oh, dear father, we loved you so;
How sad it was to part.
One dear thought of your sweet face
Would cause the tears to start.
By his daughters.

Sleep on, dear father, sweetly rest;
We need you, but God knows best;
God's will be done, He doeth well,
But how we miss you no tongue can tell.
By his sons.

These past few warm, bright spring days have had the people and property owners thinking of improving their homes. Already Messrs. Rich and Durding have several orders for painting, to be done as soon as possible. Things will take on a boom here although at present the streets are very muddy. The town council have ordered several thousand bushels of shells to be used on the streets, which have been very badly needed lately.

Bradley Keer, of Baltimore, has been visiting his parents in this town this week.

Trew Durding has been home for the past week with a light attack of la grippe.

Mr. Ben Coburn has erected a stage in his hall and will try to get some entertainment companies to give a performance in this town.

Mr. T. J. Rich has been suffering very much the past week with his foot. He thinks that it will have to be amputated.

Messrs. Joseph Downey and Will Crosby surveyed the lot below M. T. Miller's store last Wednesday. This lot, which is on the corner of Sharp and Liberty streets will be bought by Jr. O. U. A. M., for their new hall.

Mr. Charlie Kendall received quite a number of very funny valentines on Monday last, but he did not mind it a bit; he is one of those happy-go lucky fellows and doesn't get angry over small matters.

Bloodhounds for Kent.—Sheriff Andrew Medders has negotiated for the purchase of two thoroughbred bloodhounds for running down chicken thieves of this community. These bloodhounds are to be presents from the farmers whose crops have been devastated. Capt. J. W. McCleary lost 40 fine fowls one night last week, and his neighbor lost 16. In and about Kennedyville the farmers have lost scores of chickens and hams.
