OBJECTS AND PRINCIPLES OF THE

Jr. O. U. A. M.

FIRST—To maintain and promote the interests of Americans and shield them from the depressing effects of unrestricted immigration; to assist them in obtaining employment and to encourage them in business.

SECOND—To provide for the creation of a fund or funds for the payment of benefits in case of sickness, disability or death of its members, to members, their legal dependents or representatives, and to issue certificates of membership for the same.

THIRD—To uphold the American Public School System, to prevent interference therewith, and to encourage the reading of the Holy Bible in the schools thereof.

FOURTH—To promote and maintain a National Orphans' Home.

We recognize the landing upon our shores of the ignorant, the vicious and the lawless of the Old World as a constant menace to our institutions, and believe that it should be viewed with alarm by the loyal and patriotic citizens of the country.

We would place a flag upon and a Bible within every Public School-house of our land, that all might learn these to be a beacon light in every storm which may threaten our destruction.

THAT GAME OF CARROM.

Lo! How the Mighty Have Fallen, and Because of Their Fall They Want to Drag the Gallery With Them.

An exciting game of carrom took place at the Carrom Club on Court street, last Friday afternoon. The great champions (?) challenged two of the club's best players to a contest, flaunting their self-assumed superiority in the faces of everyone who entered the door. Just for fun the two players accepted the challenge and the way they walloped the champions (?) was good for the gallery to see. They were good enough to acknowledge their defeat in writing, but their acknowledgement drags the whole show-gallery, players-bench and all in the dust in the following facitious manner:

Chestertown, Md., Feb. 12, 1910.

We, the undisputed Ex-champions, of Rogue's Alley, Chestertown, Carrom Club do hereby acknowledge our defeat of the 11th inst. by Somersault Harry and the man they all fear, (but us) yet some of the rooters in the gallery claim that the contest was won on a fluke by Somersault Harry playing out of his turn in the last game. The Doctor looked wise and said nothing, possibly he was lacking in nerve just at the time, as the rooters noticed he was a little shakey about the knees. Carrom Frank, the Hoodoo finisher, could not sit still. Hydraulic Warren, Sleepy Ned and Fancy Farm Bill, were greatly amazed at the frequent falldowns of of the Flukers. Little Faith Charlie and Jumpup Tommie were on the anxious bench. Horsetraders Brooks and Wilmer left at the end of the second game, the former to go home and feed up, he said, (his face we suppose), the latter did not say and we can assign no reason for his sudden departure, unless he suspected another horsetraid was on hand up the street. We are sorry Peacock Tommie could not stay to see the contest; suppose he was called home to put a ribbon on his dog's neck to prevent it from taking cold. We regret very much the contest was pulled off without the presence of Big Flatland's Tom. We acknowledge our defeat, but remember, it took the best the town and county could afford to accomplish it. We are open for a challenge from any two members of the club at any time and place they name.

Very respectfully yours,
DR. COOK & RAGGED BELT WEARER,
Ex-champions.

The special meeting at Fairlee Grange on Wednesday afternoon and evening was a fine success, and a large number of grangers were present. A class of 14 were given two degrees, and there were several applications for membership. Deputy Organizer James T. Anthony was present and made a pleasing address.

The weekly meeting of the Chestertown Grange on Wednesday was a most interesting and enthusiastic one. The subject for discussion was: "The Causes of the High Prices of Food." Mr. Benj. F. Rash led the discussion with a most excellent paper, and nearly all the members assigned some reason for the high cost of living. The various committees were continued, after reporting progress. A committee was appointed to arrange for a social meeting and spread at the first meeting in March. Mr. G. Thomas Dewberry will lead an interesting discussion next Wednesday, and every member is urged to be present. The clover seed question will be settled.
