OBITUARY.

MRS. REGINA KOHN.

Mrs. Regina Kohn died Monday, the 21st inst., at the Hebrew Hospital, Baltimore, aged 79 years. She was the mother of Mrs. N. Lieberman, of Melitota. She also leaves two other daughters, Mrs. Becky Solomon, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Sophie Goodfriend, of Milton, N. C.; also one son, Mr. Sol. L. Kohn, of New York, who is in the brokerage business.

J. HACKETT GODWIN.

J. Hackett Godwin, aged 68 years, died near Chestertown yesterday morning. His remains will be buried at I. U. cemetery, near Worton, at 2 o'clock today, Rev. Mr. Litsinger officiating. Mr. Godwin was a native of Queen Annes county, and a member of one of the old families of that county. Undertaker Charles L. Dodd had charge of funeral.

RICHARD S. USILTON.

Mr. Richard S. Usilton, Jr., died at Rochester, New York, Monday of tuberculoses, aged 42 years. His remains were brought to Chestertown Wednesday by train and intered in Chester Cemetery. Services were conducted at the grave by Dr. F. T. Little. The deceased was a native of this county. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. Chas. Hodgkins, Harry Hodgkins, Geo. Lambert, Geo. W. McWhorter, L. B. Russell and Allie Baker. Undertaker Wm. T. Hicks had charge of the funeral.

DIE AT 94 AND 86.

Miss Harriet McVey, 94 years old, was buried Tuesday in Rosebank cemetery, at Calvert, Cecil county, 48 hours after the burial of her brother, George W. McVey, 86 years old.

Mr. McVey, who was a bachelor, resided with his sister, near Zion. They were devoted to each other, never being separated a day for more than 50 years. For the last 15 years Miss McVey had not left the premises. Mr. McVey died first, and hardly had the breath left his body when his sister was stricken, and within 30 hours, had joined her brother in death.

To Establish Overall Factory.

Chestertown will soon have another industrial enterprise. Messrs. R. F. Elburn and L. B. Russell will conduct a sewing factory in the large room over the Enterprise office. The business will be inaugurated on a modest scale only about 20 machines being installed at first, but this number will be augmented as rapidly as circumstances will justify. This little industry giving employment to about 20 ladies with a weekly payroll of probably $125, will be a help to the town, and for this reason, if no other, it is to be hoped that the venture may prove successful. Only contract work will be done at first, and arrangements have been made for beginning work by the manufacture of overalls. The business will be conducted under the firm name of R. F. Elburn & Co., with Mr. Elburn as the active partner and manager. It is expected that the plant will be in readiness to begin operatious by the middle of March.
