Rock Hall Items.

Last Monday evening there were two new candidates taken into the Jr. O. U. A. M. It looks as if old 149 was still having a lot of work for the grat. Those initiated were Norris Stevens and Pierson Bigelow.

Clarence Coleman, while reaching for a bucket which fell in the well, dropped his watch. It only stopped running for a few minutes.

A report was circluated in this town that Prof. Arthur Greenwood was in a hospital in Philadelphia. This is a mistake, he was only at the hospital for an examination and his condition is not necessarily serious.

The winter fishermen report that fish have been more scarce this winter than for quite a good many years. Lots have pulled their nets and come home.

Several of the young ladies of Rock Hall attended the Mt. Vernon banquet at Washington College last Tuesday evening.

Mr. Owen Downey, of Philadelphia, is in Rock Hall on a visit. We hope the riot [in that city did not chase him out.

W. W. Clayton is in Philadelphia this week.

The roads have been so muddy that the rural mail carriers have been late in getting home off their routes.

Mr. Clarence Greenwood, from Aberdeen, was in Rock Hall to attend the K. of P. supper and entertainment. The Knights of Pythias held their annual aniversary last Tuesday evening and after a sumptuous supper a program of the best selections that the people of Rock Hall have ever heard. Prof. Judifind deserves great credit for arranging the program. Sahib Ramoo, of Calcutta, India, a Hindoo juggler, represented by Master Reuben Greenbank, was very amusing in his mystic magic.

Mrs. Chas. O. Kendall is visiting her parents in Bryantown, Queen Anne's county.

Mr. John Davis, who has been suffering very much with erysipilis, is improving, and is able to be out.

One day this week one of Rock Hall's popular young men was seen upon the road tagged. We would like to know whether some friend of his was not afraid he would be lost?

A party of young folks in Piney Neck had quite a joke on Jack the Ripper last week. Seeing him making his way home, they went ahead of him and hid under the bed. When he came in and retired they quietly pulled the covers off him. Out he went and was not seen until late the following day.

Boys, you ought not to do it!

Kennedyville Items.

W. M. Hurlock, wife and son Walter, visited relatives in Philadelphia, last week.

Mrs. E. F. Othoson spent several days in Baltimore last week, visiting Mrs. T. A. Godwin who has been in the hospital. We are glad to hear she is improving and will soon be able to return home.

Harry J. Hill, wife and little girl spent a pleasant time at the home of Mrs. Hill's parents, in Annapolis, last week.

Mrs. J. H. Weer and mother were in Philadelphia, a few days last week.

The measles are in the homes of Geo. R. Rasin and Harry J. Hill. We hope nothing serious will develop.

Mrs. W. T. Hague has the grip. The best we can say about grip is, its bad even in a mild form.

The Ladies Aid Society held a pound party and literary program at the home of R. Haggerty on Friday night and cleared twenty-five dollars which was good considering the cold night and bad travel.

The recitations by Mrs. Schofield, Miss Brinsfield, Miss Susie Hall, Miss Alina Dill and little Marguerite Crew, were fine as also was the duett by Misses Bertha and Alta Price. We must not forget the male choir consisting of D. C. Kelly, Harper Webb, C. S. Hague, E. T. Othoson and others, with Miss Lula VanDyke as organist.

Regular church services on Sunday. Our pastor very earnestly requests a full attendance of the members on the first Sunday in March as there will be a members meeting immediately after preaching.

Some of the farmers are losing quite a number of their lambs. We also hear of dogs getting among their sheep, a dog that will run and kill sheep is not good enough to pay the loss and should be done away with.

Miss Pennington, of Caroline county, is visiting Mrs. Dukes.
