LOCAL MATTERS

Land Company Formed.—The Kent County Land Company was incorporated this week with the following directors: J. Waters Russell, F. G. Usilton, W. S. Collins, A. M. Culp, and Wm. T. Brown. The capital stock is $25,000.

Appointed to Police Force.—Mr. Sam'l E. T. Startt, formerly deputy sheriff of Kent County, has been appointed on the Baltimore police force with duties in East Baltimore. Mr. Startt has entered upon his duties.

Having Great Time.—Mr. and Mrs. George T. Hudson, who have been at Atlantic City for the past two weeks, report having a fine time. A postal from Mr. Hudson this week states that big crowds have been there during the week, and that he and other society folks have been doing the boardwalk in fine style. Some went in bathing on Monday, but it was a little too cool for friend George. He went to Ocean City instead but said it was too good for him there, as he could find nothing but salt water. He contemplates going to the Inlet and Brigantine once or twice before coming home, and when he gets home he'll be ready to show the boys how "society does it at the shore." Mr. and Mrs. Hudson will remain by the sea-shore until Easter.

Fair Dates Changed.—At a meeting of the directors of the Gentlemen's Driving Park, Baltimore, last week, it was decided that the former October dates were too late for the fall meeting and fair, and it was decided to have the race meet this year August 22 to 27 inclusive. A fine race program will be arranged and large purses offered for both harness and running races. Heretofore the fall meeting has been held the third week in October. The meet at the Gentlemen's Driving Park will be followed by Tolchester, and it looks now from the circuit which has been formed comprising the Driving Park, Tolchester, Timonium, Prospect Park, Hanover, Carlisle, York, Hagerstown and Frederick, that Tolchester will see the finest racing in its history provided its purses are large enough to attract the horsemen.

TOLD IN BRIEF.

—Some of our farmers have already begun their spring work.

—The steamer Chesapeake made the Corsica's Chester river route this week.

—Mr. Walter T. Elburn has established a milk route in Chestertown.

—Moving picture shows will be resumed in Stam's Hall on Monday. Everything new and up-to-date.

—The Chestertown Stars minstrel show will be held in Stam's Hall, next Saturday evening, March 12. Don't miss it.

—Mr. John K. Brown, of Church Hill, has been appointed by Gov. Crothers a commissioner of the Bureau of Immigration.

—By request the Fairlee Grange Minstrels will repeat their show in Fairlee Hall, next Friday evening, March 11th, at 8 P. M.

—Messrs. Wm. S. and R. H. Collins have sold their finely-located building lots on Front street to Real Estate Broker J. Waters Russell. Price private.

—It is rumored that one of our progressive farmers over the river has been offered $100 an acre for a part of his farm situated on the river.

—Farmers' Institutes will be held in Chestertown Friday, March 18th, and at Kennedyville on Saturday, March 19. One lecturer will address the grange in Sassafras on the 19th.

—Messrs. Davis & Satterfield has received this week two cargoes of lumber from G. E. Leary & Son, Rock Hall, to be used in the erection of their new warehouse near the depot.

—Mr. Elmer Willson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Carroll Willson, of near Rock Hall, has gone to Wilmington, Del., where he has accepted a lucrative position with a large business firm.

—The Md., Del. & Va. Ry. Co. last week passed an order to increase the minimum freight rate on packages from 15 to 25 cents, but before the order went into effect they recinded it and allowed the old rate to stand.

—For the third consecutive winter this section has been visited by a severe electrical storm on the last day of February. The one on Monday night was accompanied by a drenching rain and much lightning but no damage is reported.

—One of the stockholders of the Kent County Savings Bank refused an offer of $307.50 for his stock this week. The appearance of the handsome new building is evidently causing the value of this stock to rise to unusual proportions. The par value of the stock is $100.

—The Board of Kent county almshouse trustees was delightfully entertained by the Queen Annes trustees at their almshouse on Thursday. The Kent trustees were very much pleased with the Queen Annes institution, and learned some things that might with propriety be adopted by the Kent trustees in the conduct of our institution.

—Active preparations have begun for the production of the Society Vaudeville to be given under the auspices of the Ladies Town Improvement Association shortly after Easter. The performance will consist of music, fancy drills, etc., and will be a rare treat. The entertainment is under the direction of Mrs. Hope H. Barroll and a corps of competent lady assistants.

—One hundred and fifty people attended the sewing meeting supper given at the home of Mr. Robt. G. Nicholson, last Thursday evening week. Considerable merriment was occasioned by the rise in the price of supper tickets, as many of the ladies, especially, had only the customary quarter. The supper was well worth the price, 50 cents, and every one gladly handed out the extra quarter, even if some did have to borrow it for the time being.

—Mr. Marcus Asher bought a brown mink hide from Mr. Addie Needles, Thursday, nearly a yard long for which he paid $6. This is said to be the largest mink ever caught in Kent county, and was caught on Mr. Claude Blackiston's marsh in Quaker Neck. Mr. Asher also purchased the large otter hide, measuring nearly 6 feet, which Mr. Noble Moffett caught on Ringgold's marsh in the Fifth District, for $20.

—Chestertown will experience another building boom this spring and summer. My! how the dear old town has grown in the last ten years! It is one of the most beautiful towns in the State, surrounded as it is by some of the finest farming land in the world and its shores bathed in the waters of one of the most beautiful rivers in this country. Delightful place for some wealthy city man looking for an ideal country location.

—The Ericsson Line steamer, Anthony Groves, was caught on the bay on Monday night and was fogbound until Wednesday, when she returned to Baltimore. Mrs. Lawson Starcher, sister of Mrs. Harry Stavely, who was hastening to her sister's bedside was among the passengers on the Groves, who left Baltimore for Betterton on Monday night, and she did not reach her destination until Wednesday evening. All traffic on the bay has been paralyzed during the week on account of the dense fogs.

—Twenty-three shares of the Kent County Savings Bank stock, owned by the late J. K. Aldridgde will be sold at public sale, by the executor, Hope H. Barroll, Esq., in front of the Court House door on Tuesday, March 15th. It is reported that Miss Ellen Fisher, of Port Deposit sold her stock in the bank to one of the directors, this week, through the real estate firm of Beck & Ivens at $300 per share. The adve r tisement of the Aldridge stock will be found in another column.

Our Advertisers' Interests.

There is a man named Jones,
A big shoe store he owns,
He sells the shoes that are noted for style,
They hold their shape, and last a great while.

Watch for H. F. Jefferson's big advertisement next week. New lines of spring suits, coats, millinery and shoes.

Kilbourn & Bramble, the big Fairlee merchants, have just received a carload of 20th Century Manure Spreaders, equal to any on the market. If you are looking for one, or for a carriage or runabout, or for anything kept for sale at reasonable prices, that's the place to go.

No other paper in Kent county offers such inducements to our merchants to advertise in its columns as does the TRANSCRIPT. It is the only paper which reserves a column for letting the people know what the merchants are offering and these little readers are worth money to our merchants. It pays you to advertise with us, because we make the effort to make your adv. pay you. Try it and see.

Lofland & Culp have some interesting information for public school scholars and base ball clubs, also to the farmers. See what it is on page 1.

Seed potatoes of the Maine grown variety for sale by Davis & Satterfield; also all kinds of grass seed and never-scale, the original Lime & Sulphur spraying meterial.

J. H. Shuster makes a statement in his advertisement this morning. See what it is and make him prove it.

Get your trading stamp book full at Chas. H. Brice's big department store in Betterton before he stops giving them. Mr. Brice has for sale 3 kitson lights each light 2000 candle power. He will install the lights for the purchaser.

We call the attention of our readers this morning to the big advertisement of Eisenberg's Underselling stores, Baltimore. This great store has a reputation among Eastern Shore people for selling reliable and durable goods at inducing prices and so conducts its business as to give prompt and accurate attention to all orders. The advertisement speaks for itself. Read it on page 6.

Odds and ends of goods still on bargain sale at A. Cohen's. He is as busy as a bee getting ready for his spring trade.

B. S. Sutton, the hustling Black's merchant, has change of advertisement this morning that is well worth your attention. Sutton's is one of the REAL bargain places in Kent County, and you can't miss it in your dealing with him.

The Hub, Millington, has removed to its handsome quarters. Only half minute's walk from the original stand. The store will be opened for the great spring and summer trade on March 14th. Everything new and up-to-date in this great department store, where the prices are so low that he makes the other merchant wonder how he could do it. But he does it, and there is the secret of his success. Wait for the day and date and watch for the big advertisement in this paper.

The Second National Bank has a very readable and pointed advertisement in this issue. It defines the difference between the protection offered to depositors by a State and a National bank, and calls attention to an important banking law now before the Maryland Legislature. Read it.
