HARRY F. JEFFERSON,

THE LADIES' STORE,

Opposite Stam's Hall Chestertown Md.

IN CHURCH CIRCLES.

Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett will preach the missionary sermon in the Middletown M. E. Church, tomorrow (Sunday) morning.

Rev. A. H. Covey, of Pomona, filled the pulpit in Ridgely M. E. Church last Sunday morning.

Rev. P. L. Donaghay, rector of St. Annes' P. E. Church, Middletown, Del., preached in Emmanuel P. E. Church yesterday evening.

Rev.J. T.Richardson, pastor of Rock Hall M. E. Church, has notified his congregation that he will ask for a change of pastorate for the next conference year.

Rev. Robt. Watt, of Smyrna, Del., lectured in the Chestertown M. E. Church yesterday evening at 7.30 o'clock on the subject, "Things Worth While." A silver offering was taken at the door.

The colored choir did not sing in Arlington, Baltimore, M. E. Church. The colored preacher thought best under the circumstances for them not to do so, and Dr. S. Reese Murray, pastor of the Arlington Church, where the entertainment was to have been held, refuses to talk of the incident.

Rev. B. P. Truitt, pastor of First Methodist Protestant Church, Washington, D. C., and one of the most prominent ministers of the Maryland conference, died at the Union Protestant Infirmary, Baltimore, on Tuesday morning after an illness of more than a year of internal troubles. The deceased was born in Wicomico county and was a graduate of St. John's College. He was a preacher of force and power, and a scholar of ability. He leaves a widow and three children. For many years he was chairman of the important committee on Church extension in the conference.

The Rev. H. W. Wells, rector of St. Andrew's Church, Wilmington, Del., will preach in Emmanuel Church, next Friday evening, March 11th.

A "Pie and Tea" social will be held at the home of Mrs. John F. Howard on Wednesday evening of next week, for the benefit of the Sunday School and church. Pies and refreshments will be on sale, and you will be sure of a good time.

The annual session of the Maryland Conference Methodist Protestant Church will convene in Broadway M. P. Church the first Wednesday in April. Few changes among the pastors are contemplated.

Extra services have been continued in Christ M. P. Church during the week with increased interest. There has been one conversion during the series of meetings which have been of much spiritual benefit to the membership.

Chestertown M. E. Church— L. E. Barrett, D. D., Pastor—Services next Sunday, March 6th as follows: 10.30 A. M. preaching by Rev. A. H. Covey, 2.15. P. M. Sabbath School, 7 P. M. union meeting of Epworth League and congregation—Song service, with a short address by Rev. Olie Connelly of Washington College. All invited.

Christ M. P. Church—Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, pastor.—Testimony meeting at 9.30 A. M. Preaching at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P.M. Sunday School at 2.30 P. M. Juniors at six o'clock and Christian Workers service at 6.45 P. M. To all these services you are cordially invited.

Rev. Wm. N. Sherwood, pastor of Clayton, Del., M. P. Church, reports that his church is finally free of debt, and that his parsonage has recently been repaired and painted. The Ladies Aid held a "birthday party" on Feb.22, and $200 was raised. This was applied to the payment of the church debt, and the church is in better condition than for many years. So much for the hustle and push of one of Chestertown's good boys.

Washington College Base-Ball Club.

The Baltimore Sun of Sunday contained a picture of Captian W. Urie Cross, of the Washington College baseball team, and the following reference to the membership of this year's club:

"The base-ball candidates at Washington college reported for the first time Wednesbay afternoon, 24 men presenting themselves to Capt. W. Urie Cross. The work of the season was outlined and a long talk on the necessity of training and discipline was given by Athletic Director M. J. Thompson. The material, both in number and quality, looks the best the Eastern Shore college has had in some time."

Among the members from last year's squad are Captain Cross, Coulbourn, Noonan, Turner, Jump, Kelley, Porter, Knotts, Baden, Metcalfe and Sasscer. The most serious proposition confronting Coach Thompson and Capt. Cross is the pitching department. Colbourn, Metcalfe and Baden had some experience last year, and to some extent showed good form, but with the heavy list of games this year it is rather uncertain how they will stand under fire. However, they are three hard workers, and Coach Thompson thinks he can develop them into pretty fair college mound performers.

The schedule as arranged by Manager Edward Crouch, 1910, of Elkton, is now in the hands of the athletic committee and will be ready for publication soon.

Suprise Party.

The home of Mr. Roland Bennett was the scene of much enjoyment, Saturday night, the occasion being a surprise party given in honor of Mrs. Bertha Bennett. Quite a number of her many friends gathered about seven o'clock, and participated in various games until about ten o'clock, at which time refreshments were served. The inner man having been satisfied, games were resumed and continued until about midnight, when the good bye was given and all started for home feeling that it had been good to be there. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Roland Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jarrell, Mrs. W. Fletcher, Misses Edna and Gertie Hadaway, Mary Richardson, Katie Elburn and Edith Hynson; Messrs. Mm .C. Faulkner, John Barnes, Raymond Lusby, Grover C. Hadaway, Thomas Coke Pinkind, John Vickers, Douglas Blackiston, Lewis Weirdug, Randolph Brown, Henry Richardson, Robert Hynson and others.
