AT HYMEN'S ALTAR.

SILCOX—KELLEY.

A wedding of interest to many in Kent was solemnized on Wednesday evening, March ninth, in Starr M. P. Church, Baltimore, the contracting parties being Miss Helen May Kelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Kelley, of Baltimore, and Mr. Thomas Spencer Silcox, of Still Pond. At the appointed hour, eight o'clock, the bridal party entered the large edifice to the sweet strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, sung by a choir of thirty voices. First came the ushers, Messrs. L. Harris Crewe, Ernest Briscoe, Charles H. Brice and Horton Silcox, in full dress, followed by Master Joseph Rae, as ring-bearer and little Miss Catherine Rae, as flower girl, carrying a huge basket of sweet peas, dressed in white. Then came the bride gowned in white crepe de chene over white taffeta, leaning on the arm of the groom. They were met at the altar by the Rev. George W. Hadaway, where, amid a bower of stately palms, the nupital knot was tied. A special feature of the musical program, which was very elaborate, was the chanting of the Lord's Prayer by a trio of selected voices. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party and many friends went in carriages to the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Warfield, aunt and uncle of the bride, where an informal reception was held, leaving about nine-thirty for Union station, where the bride and groom took the 10 o'clock train for Philadelphia, Atlantic City and other points. Upon their return they will spend some weeks at Betterton, during which time their home, the "Greenwood Farm," recently purchased by the groom from the Turner estate, will undergo many repairs and improvements and be fitted up for their occupancy. The bride's only ornament was a diamond brooch, gift of the groom, which held her veil in place. She carried a prayer book and sweet peas. The ring ceremony was used. During the three days previous to the event, she entertained the bridal party and others at her home, at a house party, a jolly time being enjoyed. The bride is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Numsen, the well-known millionaire packers, and a first cousin to the late Mrs. Chas. Steiff, well-known in Baltimore society and an artist of some note, having graduated from the Md. Institute of Art several years ago. With her mother and sisters she has traveled much and enjoys a large acquaintance. Mr. Silcox is well-known in Kent and is very popular with a wide circle of friends who are most pleased to learn of his happy marriage. The wedding presents included large sums of money, rare and handsome cut glass, silverware, bric-a-brac and many other articles, useful as well as ornamental. Quite a number of dinners and teas have been given in their honor. They will be "at home" after April tenth

Millington Town Election.—The town election held Saturday for the selection of one town commissioner was one of the most exciting held for several years. Mr. J. W. Higman was running for re-election and was opposed by Mr. L. Wilson. That old veteran campaigner, Mr. W. C. Rolph, had charge of the Anti-Hogs or Higman men and Mr. W. T. Mallalieu conducted the Hog campaign. After a hard fought battle, the Rolph forces won out, as Mr. Rolph characterizes it "by an overwhelming majority." The figures however were 34 to 39.
