The Butterflies.

This beautiful musical comedy will be rendered in Stam's Hall the second week in April, exact dates will be given next week. This little comedy is somewhat similar to the beautiful little play "Bi-bi" given a year ago, and is full of bright music and sparkling wit. The dramatic features of the play are under the direction of Prof. E. J. Clarke, while the music is in charge of Mrs. David B. Ford and Miss Ruby Ahern. The whole affair is under the management of a committee with Mrs. H. H. Barroll chairman. This should insure the success of the entertainment, as Prof. Clarke is an adept at elocution, Mrs. Ford and sister, Miss Ahern, are skilled musicians and sweet singers, and Mrs. Barroll is a worker of untiring energy and zeal. She has the valuable assistance of many of the ladies of the town, and we bespeak for the entertainment a fine audience each evening.

IN CHURCH CIRCLES.

Large congregations attended all the churches on Sunday and heard able Easter sermons and fine music. The floral decorations in all the churches were beautiful.

The annual session of the Maryland Conference, Methodist Protestant Church, will convene in Broadway Church, Baltimore, on Wednesday. The conference sermon will be preached on Wednesday by Rev. Dr. H. L. Elderdice, president of Westminster Theological Seminary. The ordination sermon will be preached on Sunday morning by Rev. S. B. Tredway. There are rumors of changes among the pastors, among them being several in Kent.

The members and friends of the Chestertown M. E. Church tendered Rev. Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Barrett a splendid reception in the lecture room of the church on Tuesday evening.

Rev. Dr. Rood, the faithful and able pastor of Chesterville and Millington M. E. Churches (South), has been returned to the charge for another year, much to the satisfaction of his people and the community generally.

The musical program for Emmanuel P. E. Church Sunday next at 11 o'clock will be as follows: "Venite," Bethoven; "Te Deum Laudamus," Thos. Spencer Lloyd; "Jubilate Deo in Eb," F. R. Corbin; "Christ the Lord is Risen Today," Henry Wilson.

About 60 members of Chester Lodge, A. F. & A. M., attended divine services at Emmanuel P. E. Church, the evening of Good Friday, and heard a scholarly and eloquent sermon by Dr. H. B. Martin, rector of Emmanuel Church and Chaplain of Chester Lodge.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., pastor.—Services next Sunday, April 3rd, as follows: 10.30 A. M., short sermon and Sacramental service; 2.15 P. M., Sabbath School and pastor's bible class. All who wish to spend a little while in the study of God's word are invited to attend. 7 P. M., Union Meeting of Epworth League and congregation. Song service and a short sermon by pastor. Junior League Friday evening 7 o'clock. To all or any of these services you are cordially invited.

Christ M. P. Church—Rev. Dr. F. T. Little, pastor. Last Sunday in the conference year. Testimony meeting at 9 30 A. M.; preaching at 10.30 A. M. and 7.30 P. M.; Sunday School at 2.30 P. M.; Juniors at six o'clock and Christian Workers at 6.45 P. M. To all these services you are cordially invited.

Stole Team.

Harry, alias "Slim" Betts, reported to be a notorious crook, was arrested at Clayton, Del., on Sunday by Lieut. of Police Detectives Jerry Cambell, a trusted employe of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, on the charge of stealing Mr. Richard Turner's team from his stable on Saturday night. Betts is said to have left the Ericsson boat at Betterton and inquired the way to Chestertown. He stopped on the way it is thought, got Mr. Turner's team, came to Chestertown and got a blanket from Mr. Wm. R Clough, went to Queen Annes and got a set of harness from Mr. Charles Baxter, and made off into Delaware. Detective Cambell saw Betts with the team in Clayton. He left there and went to Smyrna where he was arrested for trespassing upon the railroad property, and was sent to Dover jail for 60 days. Constable Severson was notified by Mr. Turner of the loss of the team and he immediately set the wires busy telephoning to points in Delaware. The team was recovered on Monday, and Betts, who is a white man, and reported to be a notorious crook, will be brought to Kent for trial after serving his sentence in Dover. The authorities of the law deserve great credit for their quick work in this case. Keep the crooks out of Kent.

OBITUARY.

DR. JOHN J. WRIGHT.

Dr. John J. Wright, of Warwick, was suddenly taken ill on Friday night and died before noon on Saturday. Death is supposed to have been due to heart trouble. Dr. Wright was 73 years old and was the oldest practicing physician in Warwick. He leaves a daughter, Miss Blanche, and a son, Dr. Galen Wright. Funeral services were held on Tuesday with interment in Forest cemetery, Middletown, Del.

Alumni Dinner.

The fourth annual dinner of the New York Alumni of Western Maryland College, will be held in the Cafe de L'Opera (Japanese Gardens) Broadway and 42nd street, April 15th, at 7 30 P. M. Any alumnus from Kent who may happen to be in New York at that time, will be cordially welcome.

—The Automobile routes to Tolchester are proving extremely popular, and crowds of passengers are going to Baltimore by the Beach route. Mr. William R. Clough, the sure and safe way route, is still doing business and is getting a large share of the patronage.
