This ordinance shall only be open to acceptance, and shall only be accepted by the Baltimore Belt Railroad Company, as a contract between it and the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, modifying, as herein provided, the contract obligations created under and by the acceptance of the said ordinance approved May 14, 1890; and the evidence of the acceptance of this ordinance shall be a resolution to the Board of Directors of the said company, a copy of which, duly certified by the secretary of the said company under its corporate seal, shall be lodged in possession of the Mayor; such acceptance shall be so lodged with the Mayor within thirty days after the passage of this ordinance, and thereupon the provisions of this ordinance shall be construed, to all intents and purposes, as if they had been inserted in and made part of the said ordinance approved May 14, 1890.

Acceptance.

SEC. 2. And be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Effective.

Approved July 25, 1902.

THOMAS G. HAYES, Mayor.

No. 82.

An ordinance to repeal Section 94, Article 7 City Code, and Ordinance No. 81, approved May 27, 1895, known as Section 94A, Article 7 City Code, and reordain same with amendments.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That Section 94, Article 7 City Code, and Ordinance 81, approved May 27, 1895, known as Section 94A City Code, be and the same is hereby repealed and reordained as follows:

Repealed.

SECTION 94. If any wall or building, or any part of any structure of any kind, shall from any cause whatever be in a condition as to be a menace to the safety of persons or property, it shall be the duty of the Inspector of Buildings, as the head of the 3rd Sub-Department of Public Safety, to give notice in writing to the owner or owners of such unsafe conditions, or to his, her or their agents or representatives, and require the same to be made safe and secure or removed, as speedily as in the judgment of the Inspector of Buildings the emergency of the case demands; and it shall be the duty of such person or persons, whether owner, agent or representative, to comply with such notice from the Inspector of Buildings, and any failure or neglect so to do shall subject the owner, agent or representative to a fine of twenty ($20) dollars, and an additional fine of ten ($10) dollars for each and every day there is a continuance of such failure or neglect; this, however, does not exclude any owner, agent or representative from any right of appeal from the decision of the Inspector of Buildings, as provided for in Section 84, Article 7, City Code 1893. The fines imposed under this section to be recovered as other fines and forfeitures are recoverable.

Unsafe buildings.

Penalty.

Sec. 94A. If any wall or building or any part of any structure of any kind shall be in a condition as described in Section 94, and the notice from the Inspector of Buildings as therein required having been served, and a failure or neglect to comply with said notice continue at the expiration of the time stated in said notice within which said repairs, securing or removing shall proceed, the Inspector of Buildings shall, in addition to the penalty stated in Section 94, cause

Notice.