Buildings.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That no building or buildings shall hereafter be erected over eighty-five feet in height from the established street level unless the same are fire-proof throughout.

Extreme height of buildings.

SEC. 3. Be it further ordained, That no buildings of any character shall be erected over one hundred and seventy-five feet in height from the established street level.

Face brick to be bonded.

SEC. 4. Be it further ordained, That the face brick of all walls shall be bonded to the walls with bricks, and not with metal ties.

Metal cornices.

SEC. 5. Be it further ordained, That "look-outs" for all metal cornices shall be of metal.

Limiting height.

SEC. 6. Be it further ordained, That the Inspector of Buildings shall not permit the erection of any building higher than eighty-five feet unless the material used in such construction shall have been approved by him as fire-proof, and only such approved material shall be used.

SEC. 7. Be it further ordained, That the provisions of Sections 2 and 6 of this ordinance shall apply to all buildings now existing where application is made to add to their height.

Approved March 18, 1904.

ROBERT M. McLANE, Mayor.

No. 60.

An ordinance to repeal Ordinance No. 66, approved March 1, 1904, and entitled "An ordinance providing the manner in which condemnation proceedings shall be conducted in all cases in which the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall by ordinance authorize or direct, or has by ordinance authorized or directed, the acquisition, in that manner, of property for its use unless otherwise provided for;" and to provide the manner in which condemnation proceedings shall be conducted in all cases in which the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall by ordinance authorize or direct, or has by ordinance authorized or directed, the acquisition, in that manner, of property for its use unless otherwise provided for.

Ordinance destroyed by fire.

WHEREAS, The original engrossed copy of the ordinances mentioned in the title of this ordinance, as repealed thereby, was, before the passage of said first mentioned ordinance, destroyed by the great fire of February 7 and 8, 1904; and Doubt suggested.

WHEREAS, Said first mentioned ordinance as passed was but a copy of said original engrossed ordinance, and for that reason a doubt has been suggested as to whether said ordinance ever regularly and validly became a law; now, therefore, be it

Removing doubt.

Resolved, For the purpose of removing any doubt, however unfounded, by the substitution in lieu thereof of perfect certainty:

Ordinance repealed.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That said first-mentioned ordinance be and the same is hereby repealed in toto.

Pertaining to condemnation of land, etc.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That whenever the said Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall, by ordinance, authorize