all such provisions of Article 4 of the Public Local Laws of Maryland, as enacted by Chapter 123 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of the year 1898 (commonly known as the New Charter of Baltimore City) as may be aplicable thereto, as well as all amendments thereof, and also any other Acts of the said General Assembly of Maryland which may be applicable thereto; and also in accordance with any and all ordinances of the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore now in force and applicable thereto.

Approved November 22, 1911.

No. 27.

An ordinance to condemn, open and widen Little Greene street, from the southeast side of Barre street to the north side of Lee street, in accordance with a plat thereof filed in the office of the Commissioners for Opening Streets on the fifth day of April, 1911, and now on file in said office.

Description.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, That the Commissioners for Opening Streets be and they are hereby authorized and directed to condemn, open and widen Little Greene street, with a varying width, from the southeast side of Barre street to the north side of Lee street; the land hereby directed to be condemned for said Little Greene street being described as follows: Beginning for the same at the corner formed by the intersection of the northeasternmost side of Little Greene street, as formerly laid out and now open, and the southeasternmost side of Barre street, and running thence, binding on the northeasternmost side of Little Greene street, southeasterly two hundred and thirty-two and ninety-four one-hundredths feet to the southernmost line of the warehouse now occupied by the C. D. Kenny Company; thence by a line in prolongation of the last above-described line southeasterly thirty-two feet to an angle or bend; thence southeasterly sixty-nine and seventy-eight one-hundredths feet to a point on the westernmost side of Eutaw street, distant thirty-six feet northerly from Lee street; thence southerly, binding on the westernmost side of Eutaw street, thirty-six feet to the northernmost side of Lee street; thence, binding on the northernmost side of Lee street, westerly one hundred and five and ninety-six one-hundredths feet to intersect a line drawn parallel with and distant sixty-seven feet southwesterly, measured at right angles from the first and second lines of this description, and thence, reversing said line so drawn and binding thereon, northwesterly two hundred and ninety-one and seven one-hundredths feet to the southeasternmost side of Barre street, and thence northeasterly, binding on the southeasternmost side of Barre street, sixty-seven and two one-hundredths feet to the beginning; the said street as directed to be condemned being delineated and particularly shown on a plat which was filed in the office of the Commissioners for Opening Streets on fifth day of April in the year 1911, and is now on file in the said office.
