son Ignatius Digges, his heirs, and assigns forever, a tract of land called Freeschool Farm, adjoining to the said land where I dwell, containing two hundred and eighteen acres, which I bought of Mr Thomas Holsworth, whose bond I have for making it over, and I also give, and devise unto my said son Ignatius Digges, his heirs, and assigns forever, a tract of land called Cole Brigade, containing two hundred and fifty acres, which I lately bought of Mr John Forbes, which said land, it is my will and interest, that my said son Ignatius shall have immediate possession, and use thereof, and the same shall not be deemed any part of my estate to be kept together, for the uses hereafter by me directed. I give and devise unto my said son Ignatius Digges, his heirs, and assigns forever, part of a tract of land called Craycroft's Purchase, containing one hundred and thirty five acres; part of a tract of land called Hatchett, containing one hundred and eighty nine acres; a tract of land called Little Addition, containing one hundred and twenty two acres, and a tract of land called Aquascott, alias part of Brooke Court, containing two hundred and twenty five acres.

I give and bequeath unto my son Ignatius Digges, his Executors, and Administrators,—after my just debts, and legacies are paid,—one third part of all my personal estate.

Item: I give and bequeath unto my son Nicholas Digges his heirs, and assigns forever, all that tract of land I bought
