By ye time you receive this, you will enter into ye 4th year of ye reading of Law, a year wch with proper Application will be more Essential & advantageous to you than ye 3 you have past. Let ye 1st y^r study was intricate, dry & disgusting, I doubt not you gradually find it clearer & more agreeable, & now I hope ye Reason & Judgm^t will be satisfy'd, if ye you will be able to comprehend & digest your reading so as to answer ye end intended. I look upon this year as an Essential one, & I sh^d reckon ye others as flung away if this was not added to them, you must certainly upon reflection think as I do —

M^r Jo: Darnall & Capt. Carroll are with me & desire their Service & Compt^s to you, Mrs Croxall is well & by a standing order to me desires his. I am well & am
