Mr Thomas Lee

Sir

254

altho my former application to you has not yet been attended with Success yet I again take the Liberty of soliciting your favours by Capt Carrard, especially as I can now promise you a very agreable Account of what you are pleased to send me this year, the price of Tobacco having rose on Account of your short crops, if you are so good as favour me with a share of your you may depend I will do my utmost to get you a good price, & execute your other Commands with the most ready Obedience.

I am Sir

Your ready humble Servant.

Wm Molleson.
