Dear Sir

Mr. Spragg delivered me your recommendatory letter & I flatter myself he is convinced it had its due Weight; he has been dangerously ill since his Arrival here, but is happily recovered & I make not the least doubt but the Voyage will be productive of good Effects upon his Constitution; I forward to Mr. Lux by this Opportunity his first Bill on you for £19. 2. 4 Sterling, which is the Sum I furnished him with in Consequence of your Letter. & I dare say you will chearfully reimburse it by honouring his Dft.

I had the pleasing Acco.t from Mr. Spragg of your Sister being advantageously disposed of in Marriage, upon which joyfull Occasion
