Oh is such a constant race of peoples coming with Bills & letters that I hardly know what I write. The family at Crutched Friars are all well they join with Mr. Molleson & self in compliments to you, Mr. Forbes & the rest of our Friends, We are in daily expectation of hearing from you, I shall be glad to have an account of your Passage out, I think you had too many passengers Too Long a Voyage to be very Agreable, I am just now going over to Crutched Friars to make up as usual a party at Cards, I must therefore wish you good night with assuring you I ever am with good wishes for your health & happiness

Dear Sir

Your affec Cousin &

Sincere Friend

Eleanor Molleson

N.B. Mr. Molleson desires me to tell you Jerry Berry has not shipt any Tobacco to him as yet

Just a few lines from your friend, who is scarce able to write, I am quite fatigued, but cannot let the Ship go without signing my name to you, I will write you by Coaches, I know you will excuse me, now, it is 12 o' Clock on Saturday noon and I have not slept since yesterday morning at 5 o' Clock. the post chaise is at the Door to carry off Barcaud, & my Chariot is behind it to carry me to High Beach where I shall sleep it out tomorro. Adieu receive the News Papers and believe me Dear Sir Your most affect friend

Wm. Molleson

the little Captain say he will big.

MdHS 1974 [54-263]