Dear Sir

Your Affectionate Friend &c

Humble Servant

Eleanor Mollesonp

Dear Sir

I was obliged to get Madam to be my Scribe to you on this occasion, many Letters to write & the post hour almost come, she mistook when she said I had hopes of the Tea being repealed I much fear there is no chance for it this Session I have been more particular to others of whom you hear, in short you dont deserve even this, for your Silence, however I forgive you & could not let the Packet go without informing you how things went. just twelve forward & believe me yours Sincerely M. M.
