MdHS 1974 [467-566]

Sir)

My Friend Miss Milligan (not being acquainted with you and knowing that I enjoy that pleasure) has wrote to me to sollicit permission of you, for her to write two letters to England by way of New York, not a word of Politics She says you may be assured shall escape her pen, You will particularly oblige me, if you will take the trouble of informing me as soon as possible, whether you will indulge her request which, from your well known goodness and liberality I scarcely have a doubt of — Do present my Respect to Mrs Jay whom I hope is well, and all your little Family — Believe me to be with the most perfect respect & esteem

Sir Your Sert

Eleanor Parkinson

Palace
Sept 26th 1781