His Excellency
Governor Lee

10th Octr. 1781.

695

My dear sir. This morning the French and American batteries act with great spirit and force. But we shall be more eloquent before evening, as we shall speak from about fifty pieces. The enemy's answers are weak and without effect. It appears, however, as if they intended soon to give them more decision having been employed last night in bringing from a frigate and one

MdHS 1974 [482-695]