Dear Sir, Annapolis 6th December 1781.

534

I have the honor of your two Letters of the 9th & 20th ~~of October~~ ~~the~~ ~~of~~ the latter came opportunely to hand as the General Assembly of this State were on the point of meeting & had an immediate opportunity of submitting the important subjects of them to their consideration; your former Letters I also had the pleasure of communicating to the Legislature & have not a doubt but they will feel the force of your judicious observations in the same degree that I have done. The confidence of General Greene will always give a powerful support to every proposition he may make, more especially in the Southern States,
