Sir

Capitain Latouche commanding the French frigate the Hermione after having presented his best compliments to your Excellency, request a particular favour from you, he wants to send an express to Baltimore to carry a letter there very important, and which should be delivered as soon as possible to the gentleman to whom it is directed, will you be kind enough as to forward it by one of your trusty express, he will be very well rewarded, and capitain Latouche will be very much obliged to your Excellency for this favour.

Capitain Latouche's Secretary is very happy to find this opportunity to presents his respectful compliments to the governor Lee and madam Lee, & begs them to believe, he should think himself extremely happy to his Excellency governor Lee Annapolis

MdHS 1974 [525-463]