Since March. I have now due to me near 200 £ - 50 £ of the hundred which Mr Hollingsworth was ordered to pay out of the money arising from the Sale of Some Iron, it seems he has acted another way, and from what he says I have little expectation of receiving any from him in a short time he says he is ordered to sell wheat to supply the Delegates, but that the price is too low at this time - I acquaint you Sir - that I am distressed for want of money and hope your Excellency and the Honble Committee will furnish me with two hundred pounds as soon as possible -

Liggamont is not yet given up, but it is expected he will in a short time - no news more than you will find in the inclosed papers. I am my Dear Sir with the highest esteem and regard.

Your Excellency's most hble Servt
