Dear Sir

I intended to have bo.t a Couple of Bottles of Ink from Mr. Goddard, who I understand has some exceeding good, & I am much in Want. I shall be obliged by the Favour of you to purchase them for me & if the Boat is not gone, pray let one of your Servants carry them down for me. Sho.d the Boat be gone, perhaps it may not be inconvenient for you to give them a place in the Wheaton — I will repay you on your Return to Repose and Elegance from horrid Confusion & Filth

I am with great Respect & Regard your obed.t Serv.t
Tho. Jennys

I write this on my Knee at the Ferry-House
