Your Letter of the 15th was not received till two days ago, the Enclosure did not surprise me, as I had received an original and a Copy of the same Tenor and date sometime before, Your Understanding of the Contract is perfectly right, nor does that Construction of it arise from any promise of the old Man's, but an Agreement under his hand & Seal executed at the delivery of the Bond — Immediately on receipt of yours I answered that with the one directed to myself fully, and expect to hear no more of Interest or principal until the dispute is finally settled, and that in our favour — The Family unite in Compliments to Mrs Lee with

Yours very affectly
