from her is known — Wages in Phil.a are over that a Peace is ratified in ale 1783 — ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~ —. I do not think that it will be in my power to visit S. Marys for some time & therefore shall not have the pleasure of seeing you until in Balt.o on your way to Phil.a I trust my most affectionate compts to Mrs Lee and remember me respectfully to the good family at Mellwood I believe me with truth to be yrs sincerely

Wednesday Morn. I have kept Abram since Sunday in expectation of giving you the News of Monday, post he did not get in till yesterday afternoon & nothing from the washington was to hand when he left Phil.a —
