Dear Sir

Monday 30. June 1783

I promised myself the pleasure of being at Mellwood before this but have been so much engaged at the lower warehouses that it has not been in my power I will see you one day this week Thursday or Friday it will only be up one day and down the next I only want eighty six hhds on board to make up the quantity that justifies my ordering the Ship to Sail of those 4 are of Mr Wallaces hundred – I have sent a forty hhd Schooner to Big Point for the Queen Anne flats to empty into and ordered an eighteen hhd flat to Mattox by which this is intended to go you will please mention to Mr Diggs the arrival of this flat which will take the Tobacco he was obliging enough to mention he intended Shipping you will further mention to him that I shall do myself the pleasure
