of waiting on him to receive his Commands With respect to my little friend Nancy I will only say that I ~~will always~~ shall do every thing in my power for his comfort that I have never seen a ship that I would prefer and that the Capt & his Mate appear to be very obliging & discreet Men the Crew consists of twenty seventeen of whom speake very good English ~~the~~ I have two young Gentlemen or rather Boys from the Eastshore passengers one is Chamberlains Son — I have not been able to get the Business of my friend Hughes settled as yet — I saw an uneasiness in my good friend Mrs Lee on the subject of Nancys crossing the Seas that gave me much pain I hope she is better reconciled she cannot doubt my attachment and of course my attention — Present me respectfully to the ~~Ladies~~ & Gentlemen at Melwood & believe me affectly. Yrs Uriah Tonnet
