Dear Sir London 30 Sept 1783

I have before me your esteemed fav. the 14 July which was delivered by your Son Ignatius it gave me great pleasure to see him, he is in perfect health and sets out next week for Liege, I have been greatly disapointed in my expectation's of remittances from Virginia and Maryland, and now so by the great Number of Attachments that have been sent against my Effects at home when all my Accts Sales and Accts Curr. were safe arrived and ready to be settled with my directions to Mr Clark to pay every demand against me with the greatest punctuality and expedition as Mr Clark had proved his power and begun to act hope his next letters will bring me more agreeable news of my affairs on your Side the water, I must most gratefully thank you for your kind services to James Clark and hope he will acknowledge them properly himself, I have been happy by your son Ignatius's company some time at my house
