My dear Sir

I did myself to address you by the Mary Andrews and at present have only to enclose you a letter from my dear little Nancy. She says to me that he is well and very well satisfied but that a Guinea or two would not be amiss these are sent to Mr. Neale under whose direction he is & who claims some relationship and I believe is very attentive to him — I have directed the papers from Mt. Ver. to be sent to McHenry probably he will ~~on~~ Dwyer to let you know according of them. I shall write you by Carcaud who will soon follow — May you & Mrs Lee Lady be happy —
