Sir, March 26th 1784

981

I Request you will insert the enclosed advertisement in your paper, but not without revising & correcting it if necessary — Though the Estate is truly valuable & my meaning is to mislead that idea on others without running into extravagance & to answer that end they — will either give ~~the~~ ~~that~~ ~~pick~~ Name, or make such additions as you may judge proper — my description I have referred ~~[illegible]~~ to you for the Price & the terms of Payment — ~~I can't take~~ ~~[illegible]~~ £10. Pound is my lowest price ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~ one third ~~[illegible]~~ expect a much higher price paid 20th January next — 3d 20th January 1786 & the balance paid 20th January 1787 — Been kind as to give me the earliest intelligence of the product of selling & direct your letter to Redwood where I shall be glad ~~to see~~ you when you visit the State in Baltimore. Dear Sir, Yr. Mr. Nelson.

Mr. Goddard.

MdHS 1974 [679-981]