which appears too determinate a meaning I will give you another part of his letter

"As to the Tob.o noted on my Bond, payable to Mr. Smith, Widow, that claim shall be satisfied when it can be done — CONSTANTLY I have Tobacco, but the quantity is very inconsiderable, the quantity of Tobacco now due to me is considerable - also money claims - when I shall receive either Tobacco or cash, I mean any thing considerable, I will inform you thereof."

I beg leave to present my compl.ts to Mr. Lee and my little Cousins.

I am Dear

Your most obed. humble

Philip Lee

MdHS 1974 [698-890]