Mr. Buchanan's Chariot goes in the Arethusia this goes in the Iris they go together I hope it will please Mother & myself have taken pains Chase goes in the Iris I have had some little difficulty to Conduct myself so as to approve my own Conduct and let him depart without Cause to be my Enemy I have however fully effected both. He will be very Clamourous against Mr Russell whom I think has not behaved though great allowances should be made for his sufferings. Well, probably there has been faults on all sides I have most Cautiously avoided every thing respecting it Continue me your friendly advice I wish you & believe me with the most respectfull attachment to Mrs Lee & yourself

My dear Sir

Yrs most truly.

R Rowe

MdHS 1974 [703-762]