Lorain 23d. Oct. 1704.

My dear friend

My last from Mr. McKinly of the 9th Inst. covered the enclosed from my little friend You see he complains of my not having written to him lately I suppose he thought it right to begin He complains too of want of money in which probably heretofore he has had some Cause owing not to neglect in me but probably the misapplication of what I have sent thro the old Agent for his Pocket The Death of the Head has disordered the Body of the College upon the whole which ~~the~~ it will be more satisfactory to you I have enclosed
