Grange Notes.

Sassafras Grange met at Mrs. Henry Rosin's January 4th, 1912. The election of officers was held. They are as follows: Master, H. Griffith; overseer, Henry Rosin; secretary, Irving Spry; lecturer, Mrs. W. S. Morris; assistant lecturer, Mrs. John F. Ernest; chaplain, Mrs. R. W. Johnston; steward, W. T. Colgain; asst. steward, R. W. Johnston; lady asst. steward, Theresa Dreka; gatekeeper, H. Robinson; treasurer, A. H. Johnson; executive committee, A. H. Johnson, Henry Rosin, R. W. Johnston; ceres, Mrs. A. H. Johnson; Pomona, Miss Helen Davis; flora, Mrs. H. Griffith. After one worthy master insisting that they should make some one else their master, he was elected for the third term. After the meeting ice cream and cake were served. All spent quite a pleasant evening. The next meeting will be held in the Jr. O. U. A. M. hall for the installation of officers. We hope that Mr. J. T. Anthony will be present to install them. We all hope to make the ensuing year a profitable one.

At the special meeting of the Kennedyville Grange, Saturday afternoon, there was a large attendance, and a goodly number of young people received the third and fourth degrees of the order. This was followed by a sumptuous feast of good things, served by the good ladies of the grange, upon two large tables. Among the newly elected officers for the new year, who have already been installed are: Thos. Bramble, worthy master; W. T. Hague, secretary, and F. H. Mullineax, chaplain. After the good supper, the young people had a joyful time, socially, and a number of innocent games and plays in which quite a number of the old members of the fraternity took part. The grange of our village is composed of many of the best people of the community; and aside from its great value to the farmers and home makers, from a business point of view, it brings the people, old and young, together in a delightfully social way, which all seem heartily to enjoy. Past worthy master, Mr. Geo. R. Rasin, was most heartily commended and congratulated on his prompt, regular, efficient and intelligent administration.

POMONA GRANGE.

The Kent County Pomona Grange will meet at Still Pond, Harper's Hall, at 10 A. M., January 18th. The officers for the ensuing year will be installed at this meeting. The prizes for the best ten ears of corn, white and yellow, will be awarded by competent judges. Also the result of the acre contests will be announced. Those who won prizes at the State contest have withdrawn from the county contest. County Lecturer Mrs. T. E. W. Crew will have an interesting afternoon programme.

The Board of Control and Review has finished revising the recent assessment of property with the exception of arranging the bonds. We shall be able to publish next week the exact valuation of the taxable property of the county, but as previously stated, it will be about $10,000,000 as compared with $8,500,000 at present.
