THE HUB'S BIG DOUBLE STORES, MILLINGTON, MD.

THIRD ANNIVERSARY SALE.

Record-breaking crowds at the Hub's Big Double Stores. A sale that is increasing at every hour. Men and women that were here yesterday have sent their friends to-day. The wonderful values this sale offers is causing an endless chain of advertising that money cannot buy.

NOTICE!

Some people are apt to form a conclusion that because the prices in this adv. are so low that we'll be unable to furnish the goods at the advertised prices. The FACTS are that we never advertise an article unless we have it in stock. It may have happened to you to attend a sale even on the first day and ask for a certain article as advertised and the clerk would tell you sold out. If we advertise it, we have it.

Sale Starts January 5th and Last Until the 20th Only

TAX-PAYERS WANT LAW REPEALED.

Largely Signed Petitions are Being Sent in for the Wiping Out of the Gibbs Road Law.

For some weeks past a number of petitions have been circulated among the tax-payers for the repeal of the Gibbs Road Law. These petitions are being signed by numerous of our tax-payers, and we publish below the wording of the petition and a partial list of the signers. We shall publish these lists from week to week, in order to show our representatives in the Legislature the very strong sentiment which exists for its repeal. Here is a partial list from the First District:

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE ASSEMBLY AND THE SENATOR FROM KENT COUNTY.

We, the undersigned, citizens of Kent county, respectfully urge and ask that the road law of Kent county, commonly known as "The Gibbs Road Law" be repealed at the present session of the Assembly, and we ask that you will introduce and vote for the bill printed below, so that the present system of working the county roads may be ended:

"An Act to repeal Chapter 403, and all the Sections therein contained, of the Acts of 1910 of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled an Act to add 13 sections to Article 15 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Kent County," sub-title "Roads," etc.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland that Chapter 403 of the Acts of 1910, and all the sections therein mentioned of Article 15 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Kent County" sub-title "Roads" to follow Section 167 of said article 15, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Section 2. And be it enacted that this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage."

SHERIFF McKEE ON THE JOB.

Rounds up Crap Shooters and Breaks up Speak-Easies Which Have Been Nuisances.

That Sheriff McKee is the right man in the right place, is evidenced by the manner in which he has been rounding up crap shooters and breaking up speak-easies during the past two weeks. On January 4th, he and Officer Frank Lockerman arrested ten men for crap-shooting. They were: George and Buck Lively, Willis Tiller, Charles, Walter and William Starling, John Byrd, Isaac Johnson, Lewin Chat and Wilbur Scott. Four of these men are notorious characters living in Smoketown, near Kennedyville, and the people of that section had made numerous complaints against them, but it seemed to have remained for Sheriff Mckee to relieve the neighborhood of the offenders. All were lodged in jail here, and on Monday they were taken to Kennedyville, where they were given a hearing before Justice Nickerson. The squire's office was not large enough to hold the crowd so the town hall was hired. State's Attorney Harrison W. Vickers appeared for the State, and R. Groome Parka, Esq., appeared for several of the accused. Four of the negroes, Wilbur Scott, John Byrd, Walter Starling and William Starling, were sentenced to six months in the House of Correction, and the others were fined $5 and costs.

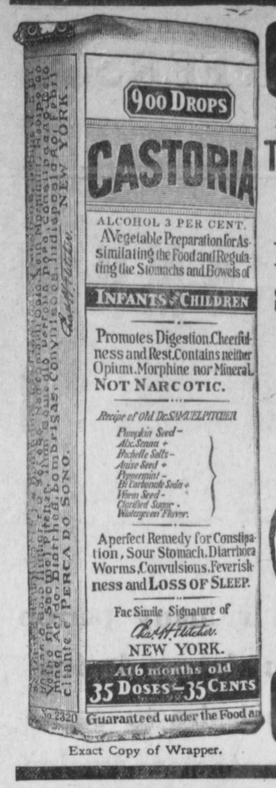

Walter Wells was also arrested at the same time for assault with a knife on John Ringgold. He was given a hearing on Wednesday afternoon, and these, together with the arrest of Wm. Walters, colored, and Grover Greenwood, white, for violation of the local option law in Chestertown recently, makes an excellent record for Sheriff McKee and his officers, and stamps him as a man who is determined to protect the order of his community.

Adds $174,397,933 to State Tax Book.

The annual report of State Tax Commissioner, Col. Buchanan Schley, of the recent reassessment of real and personal property in the State, exclusive of Somerset and Worcester, and exclusive of Kent, Cecil and one other county whose assessment had not been completed at the time of making the report, shows that the State valuation of property has been increased by $174,397,933. The following table shows the changes in the value made in the different counties by the reassessment:
