(39)

Dear Sir

Before the receipt of your Letter of the 28 ult.o Mr Tilghman had made me acquainted with the substance of your information to him, and as this advice corresponded with the expectations I had formed from my opinion of your honorable principles it was very pleasing to me, & it was this opinion which prevented me from making any application to you for payment, believing that you would come forward as soon as possible & that I should only hurt your feelings if payment was not practicable.

I hope Mr Carroll may soon have it in his power to supply the Money which will be acceptable to me, as I have much
