T. S. Lee Esq.

London 8. Feb: 1756

Dear Sir.

Your friendship of 13 Nov. gave me great pleasure and my good friend Mrs Lee's Charmed me I shall reserve an answer to a future day begging you to say to her that I am neither married or like to be so - that I am pleased at the accts she gives of my little Friends & that your Industry does not surprize me half so much as the extravagant acct. Col. Simm gave of mine. —— The draft you speak of for £21. to Mr. Murdock has never appeared it will meet that Hour your Signature ~~[illegible]~~ to I shall attend to the form thd ∴ H and as well as my memory serves me they were excellent Tobo
