THE HUB'S BIG DOUBLE STORES, MILLINGTON, MD.

SPECIAL ANNOUCEMENT

On account of the extremely cold weather, some of my patrons were not able to attend the great ANNIVERSARY SALE. and in order to give every one of my friends an opportunity to participate in the great MONEY SAVING event, we will extend this sale until the end of this month.

NOTICE!

Some people are apt to form a conclusion that because the prices in this adv. are so low that we'll be unable to furnish the goods at the advertised prices. The FACTS are that we never advertise an article unless we have it in stock. It may have happened to you to attend a sale even on the first day and ask for a certain article as advertised and the clerk would tell you sold out. If we advertise it, we have it.

This Sale Will be Continued Until the End of This Month.

Dollars saved are dollars earned. The purchasing power of your dollar is what you make it. If we show you how you can get $2.00 actual value for only one, it's your own fault if you don't take advantage of it. Are you contented to pay regular price for your clothes, when you can come here and make your dollars go twice as far.

Worton Camp P. O. S. of A.

W. B. Coleman, district president, and Mr. Thomas Starr, of Camp No. 34, found their way to Worton Camp to install their officers Thursday evening. Notwithstanding the ice covered roads and milk white fields, we had the presence of the moon to make the way brighter. Entering the camp we were received by Bros. Morris, Bowers, Carter, Sheets, Stavely and others. Surely we were "in it." The camp had a large attendance, mostly young men with beautiful faces and a loving heart for the order as well as for the girls of our town. After the installation of the officers, short addresses were made by the young orator, Bro. Stavely, of Lynch; Big Bro. Bowers, Carter, Wm. Morris, W. B. Coleman and Bro. Starr. A very pleasant evening indeed. Be ever on the advance for new members—white oak timber is what you want.

Giles, Frank Corridan, Jacob Wilson, Wilmer Thompson, Taylor Reynolds, Dr. Cantell, Bayard Black, C. P. Bartley, J. T. C. Hopkins, Jr., David Armstrong and Thomas J. Murray.
