SPRING IS COMING!

SPRING GOODS ARE HERE!

WE have tried OUR BEST to anticipate YOUR BEST wants for Spring Goods. We cannot properly tell you about all the good things we have in store for you. But we do request that you come in and see the values we have to offer. SOMETHING NEW ARRIVES DAILY.

Killarney Linen, 15c per yard.

This cotton fabric looks like linen after being washed. If shrunken before made up, it shrinks no more. The real Killarney cannot be bought elsewhere in this locality.

Handkerchief Lyn.

This is a sheer linen put out by Strawbridge & Clothier, this season to retail for 35c per yard.

BURSON HOSIERY.

The Burson Hose with no seam anywhere is very popular now. We have them for 25c per pair. We carry other makes also, and at prices from 10c in cotton to $2.00 in silk.

CORSETS.

The Nemo, Thompson Glove Fitting and M. B. Reduso. Surely this "trio" is unsurpassed in the Corset world. (You can find the latest styles in these splendid makes at our Corset Salon.)

SUITS AND COATS.

If you have tried to make out with last year's Suit or Coat, do so no longer; if your size is represented here. We are willing to fit you up in these remaining stylish Suits and Coats at a price below wholesale cost.

k Young Women Who Wear Them.

And they'll invariably tell you that the J. & K. is a perfect fitting shoe that gives absolute comfort, and is full of style. They will tell you too, that the J. & K. SHOE "Fits the Arch."

If you are particular about your footwear, you'll like the J. & K. beyond expression. It Never Disappoints.

Other deaths on page 3.

DR. STEPHEN E. FORD.

Dr. Stephen E. Ford, one of our most highly esteemed citizens, died at his home on Washington avenue, on Wednesday evening at five o'clock in the 69th year of his age. He contracted a heavy cold a week ago, developing at first into pleurisy and finally into acute pneumonia. The deceased was born in Salem, N. J., but lived for many years at North East. He was a brother of the late Budd S. Ford, upon whose death he inherited large business interests, including a part ownership of the Chester River Line of Steamboats, subsequently purchased by the Md., Del. & Virginia Railway Company. Dr. Ford was also a large landowner, being possessed of fine landed estates in Queen Annes and Cecil counties. He was for a number of years a director in the Centreville National Bank, and as late as Wednesday of last week, he attended a board meeting. For a number of years he had resided in Chestertown, first in the home on High street now owned by Mr. Charles H. Jefferson, and later he purchased the fine property where he lived until his death. Dr. Ford was a gentleman of the old school. Possessed of fine manner and of splendid social qualities, he enjoyed the confidence and esteem of a host of friends.

He was particularly fond of his home and of his church. His home and family were his idols. Nothing was too great for him to do for the pleasure of his wife and children, in whose association he took an especial delight. His home was always open to the young as well as the old, and into everything that added to the happiness and pleasure of his children and his home he entered with a zest and with the spirit of real joy. His devotion to the interests of his church were none the less. He was a regular attendant at service whenever his health permitted, and he contributed liberally of his means for its support. He was a splendid man in every respect, and it was a real pleasure for us to know him and to number him among our friends. He leaves a widow, who before marriage, was a Miss Potts, of Queen Annes county, and four children—two sons, Masters Frederick and Charles, and two daughters, Misses Stephanie and Emily Ford. He was an uncle of Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter and Mrs. W. Irving Walker, of Queen Annes. Funeral services were held from his late residence on Washington avenue yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Dr. L. E. Barrett. Interment was in Chester Cemetery. The pall-bearers were from the directors of the Centreville National Bank. Undertaker Chas. L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.

MR. WILLIAM HENRY NEWNAM.

Mr. William Henry Newnam, one of the oldest residents and largest landowners in Queen Annes county, died at his home near Church Hill, on Wednesday of the infirmities of age. The deceased was born in 1823, and began farming in his native county when quite a young man. By careful attention to business and frugal habits he made money rapidly, which he judiciously invested in some of the finest land in Queen Annes county. He had lived on the farm where he died for about fifty years. In early life he married a Miss Harrison, daughter of Col. Samuel Harrison, of Queen Annes, and the surviving children by this union are a married daughter, Mrs. Murphy, in Baltimore, and Messrs. Harrison, John and Spencer Newnam, well-known farmers and business men of Queen Annes. Mr. Newnam was twice married, his second wife being a Mrs. Wright. There were no children by this union. The deceased was one of the best business men in Queen Annes, and until his health became poor he was a director in the Centreville National Bank, and engaged in other enterprises. Funeral services were held from his late residence yesterday afternoon with interment in the family burying ground on the Harrison farm in Queen Annes. The pall-bearers were the directors of the Centreville National Bank.

MR. ADDISON EMORY.

Mr. Addison Emory, one of the most widely known men in Queen Annes county, died at his home on Corsica river, Queen Annes, on Sunday aged about 65 years. The deceased was a half-brother of the late Capt Robt. Emory, of this county, and was twice married. His first wife was a Miss Spencer, sister of the late Jervis Spencer, of this county. By this union there were two children, Mrs. Dr. Corkran, of Centreville, and Mr. F. Addison Emory on the home farm on Corsica river, where the deceased lived and farmed for many years. Last October Mr. Emory married a Miss Warfield, of Howard county, cousin of former Governor Edwin Warfield, by whom he is also survived. Funeral services were held on Tuesday with interment in Centreville.

LEGISLATIVE DOINGS.

The session of 1910 cost $199,881.65, at the above rate the session of 1912 will cost less by $64,000.

Mr. Harris' bill to repeal the Gibbs Road Law passed the House on Monday night and was sent to the Senate.

A bill will be introduced in the Legislature providing for the publication of the names of all delinquent tax-payers in this county. This bill is similar to the law now in force in Queen Annes and several other counties on the shore, and is regarded as the most efficient method of collecting State and county taxes.

Mr. Harris has introduced in the House a bill to pension Mr. Jesse G. Duyer. Mr. Duyer's eyesight was permanently injured in the service of the state and he is justly entitled to such protection. It is believed that the bill will pass the Legislature, and it is sincerely hoped that Governor Goldsborough will sign it.

Senator Campbell, of Baltimore, has introduced a measure amending the Oyster Culture Law, and providing for the shelling of depleted bars. The bill follows the line of President Price's suggestion on the oyster question.

The leading presidential candidates have been invited to address the Maryland Legislature during February.

Senator Harper, of Queen Annes, has introduced a bill providing for an amendment to the General Election Law, which will prevent the throwing out of the entire ballot when more than the required number of marks have been made in any group or block.

Delegate Warburton, of Cecil, has introduced a bill in the House to appropriate $40,000 from the general treasury for the purpose of improving the road from Perryville to Elkton. This road has been the bane of automobilists for some years.
